

The Rest Write Back

Discourse and Decolonization

Edited by

Esmaeil Zeiny

BRILL

LEIDEN | BOSTON

Contents

Foreword: Whose Rest is Best? (Un)Learning Binaries
from Subalternity VII

Arjuna Parakrama

Acknowledgements XI

Notes on Contributors XII

Introduction: The Rest and Decolonial Epistemologies 1

Esmail Zeiny

PART 1

Positioning New Paradigms

1 Must Non-Europeans Think Like Us? A Critique of Modern Thoughtlessness in Western and Resten Societies 19

Dustin J. Byrd

2 End or Continuation of World History: The European, Slavic and American
World – A New Paradigm? 46

Rudolf J. Siebert

3 Echoes of the Past: Colonial Legacy and Eurocentric
Humanitarianism 82

Mladjo Ivanovic

PART 2

Positioning Counter-discourses

4 Women Refashion Iran: Decolonizing the Rehistoricized
Narratives 105

Esmail Zeiny

5 African Literature: Leadership, Plight of the Majority and Hope 130

Masumi Hashimoto Odari and Ciarunji Chesaina

- 6 Aesthetic Hospitality: Mustafa Sa'eed as Guest in Tayeb Salih's Season of Migration to the North 157
Hiba Ghanem
- 7 The Rest in the White West: After the Empire is Buried, Shadows of Your Black Memory Are Born 179
JM. Persánch
- 8 The Topography of Nostalgia: Imaginative Geographies and the Rise of Nationalism 203
Andrew Ridgeway
- Index 231