

Jonathan Dunn • Heleen Joziase
Raj Bharat Patta • Joseph Duggan
Editors

Multiple Faiths in Postcolonial Cities

Living Together after Empire

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der EFG

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

1 Introduction	1
Jonathan Dunn, Heleen Joziasse, and Raj Bharat Patta
2 Collecting Stories of a Manchester Street, Living Together as People of Multi-Faiths	15
Helena Mary Kettleborough, Phil Barton, and Elaine Bishop
3 Multifaith Space: Religious Accommodation in Postcolonial Public Space?	35
Terry Biddington
4 Remembering Together: Co-Memoration in Northern Ireland	53
Jonathan Dunn
5 A Postcolonial Ethnographic Reading of Migrant/Refugee Faith Communities in Bengaluru	73
C. I. David Joy
6 Worshipping God in a Mabati Church: Bishop Jane Akoth's Leadership in the African Israel Nineveh Church	87
Heleen Joziasse and Esther Mombo

7	Discipleship as Living Out Baptism: A Dalit Public Engagement with Theology of Bonhoeffer	109
	Raj Bharat Patta
8	Immanuel Kant Believed in Zombies: Multiculturalism and Spirituality in the Postcolonial City	131
	Chris Shannahan
	Subject Index	153
	Place Index	159
	People Index	163