

Ursula Hemetek | Marko Kölbl | Hande Sağlam (eds.)

Ethnomusicology Matters

Influencing Social and Political Realities

BÖHLAU VERLAG WIEN KÖLN WEIMAR

Table of Contents

URSULA HEMETEK, MARKO KÖLBL, HANDE SAĞLAM
Introduction . . . . .	7
ANTHONY SEEGER
How Does Ethnomusicology Matter? The Socio-Political Relevance of Ethnomusicology in the 21 st Century . . . . .	15
ADELAIDA REYES
The Beneficence and the Tyranny of Paradigms: Kuhn, Ethnomusicology and Migration . . . . .	33
BRITTA SWEERS
The Position of University-Based Ethnomusicology from an Interdisciplinary Perspective . . . . .	53
SAMUEL ARAUJO
Music, Research and Public Interest A Dialogical Praxis for Social Justice . . . . .	77
TAN SOOI BENG
Bridging the Racial Divide in Malaysia: Crossing Borders through Research and Process Theatre . . . . .	93
BEVERLEY DIAMOND
Affect, Ontology, and Indigenous Protocol: Encounters in Canada . . . . .	117
RASIKA AJOTIKAR
Reflections on the Epistemic Foundations of Music in Modern India through the Lens of Caste: A Case from Maharashtra, India . . . . .	135
CORNELIA GRUBER
Politics of Women Dancing in Madagascar: Relating Critical Perspectives on Gender . . . . .	163

Table of Contents

SELENA RAKOČEVIĆ Practicing Ethnomusicology/Ethnochoreology Within Post-Socialist Realities: The Case of Serbia with Some Comparative Experiences from Former Yugoslav Countries . . . . .	191
DAN LUNDBERG Music Archives, Identity and Democracy. The Role of Archives from New Perspectives . . . . .	215
NAILA CERIBAŠIĆ On Engaging Up and Expertise in Ethnomusicology: The Example of Expert Services in the Programme for Safeguarding Intangible Cultural Heritage . . . . .	233
PHILIP V. BOHLMAN “And from the Ruins of Time They Blossom”: On the Moral Imperative in Ethnomusicology . . . . .	257
Notes on Contributors . . . . .	281