

Governing the Social in Neoliberal Times

EDITED BY DEBORAH R. BROCK

UBCPress · Vancouver · Toronto

Contents

Acknowledgments / ix

Introduction / 3

Deborah R. Brock

PART 1

Governing Subjects, Communities, and Cultures / 33

- 1 Governing Lives Worth Living: The Neoliberal Biopolitics of Disability / 38
Kelly Fritsch
- 2 The Governmentality of Gay Rights: Queer Love in Neoliberal Times / 63
Suzanne Lenon
- 3 Governing Cultures, Making Multicultural Subjects / 83
Xiaobei Chen
- 4 Aboriginal Community Research: Government and Neoliberal Self-Determination / 109
Daniel Huizenga and Rosemary J. Coombe

PART 2

Governing Responsibility / 133

- 5 Calculating Normative Literacy, Constituting Human Capital / 138
Tannis Atkinson
- 6 “Engines of Change?” Hybrid Cars, Hybrid Rationalities, and Neoliberal Environmentalism / 159
Nicole Van Lier
- 7 The lululemon Manifesto: Dance, Sing, Floss, and Self-Govern / 178
Kristin Lozanski and Christine Lavrence
- 8 Being Reasonable: Risk, Fear, and Specialized Peace Bonds / 202
Mark D. Doerksen

PART 3

Governing (In)Security / 219

- 9 Governing Uncertainty: Resilience and the Biopolitics of Security / 224
Philip J. Boyle and Marcia Oliver
- 10 Governing through Sacrifice: Militarization, Commemoration, and Canadian Identity / 242
Bianca Baggiarini
- 11 Regulating Immigrants and Managing Populations: Probationary
Status and Conditionality / 261
David Moffette
- 12 “Come Out and Be Free!”: Coming Out and the (International)
Government of Sexualities / 283
Azar Masoumi
- Conclusion / 299
- Contributors / 305
- Index / 311