Philip Payton · Andrekos Varnava
Editors

Australia, Migration and Empire

Immigrants in a Globalised World

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

1	Australia, Migration and Empire Philip Payton and Andrekos Varnava	1
2	British Emigrants and the Making of the Anglosphere: Some Observations and a Case Study Eric Richards	13
3	Emigrant Choices: Following Emigrant Labourers on the Cusp of the Age of Mass Migration Heidi Ing	45
4	Why Single Female Emigration to New South Wales (1832–1837) Was Doomed to Disappoint Melanie Burkett	69
5	Squatter-Cum-Pastoralist or Freeholder? How Differences in Nineteenth-Century Colonists' Experiences Affect Their Descendants' Historical Consciousness Skye Krichauff	93

6 Distress in Ireland 1879–1880: The Activation of the South Australian Community 119
Stephanie James

7 'Yet We Are Told That Australians Do Not Sympathise with Ireland': South Australian Support for Irish Home Rule 151
Fidelma Breen

8 Cornish Miners in Western Australia 1850–1896 181
Anthony Nugent

9 Bal-Maidens and Cousin Jenny: The Paradox of Women in Australia's Historic Mining Communities 207
Philip Payton

10 Mary Booth and British Boy Immigration: From Progressivism to Imperial Nationalism 229
Bridget Brooklyn

11 The Memorialisation of Hector Vasyli: Civilisational Prestige, Imperial Association and Greek Migrant Performance 253
Andonis Piperoglou

12 Dealing with Destitute Cypriots in the UK and Australia, 1914–1931 277
Andrekos Varnava and Evan Smith

Index 313