

AFTER REPEAL

Rethinking Abortion Politics

EDITED BY KATH BROWNE AND SYDNEY CALKIN

ZED

Contents

| | | |
|---------------|--|-------------|
| | LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS | viii |
| | ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS | x |
| | Introduction: research Sydney Calkin and Kath Browne | 1 |
| PART I | The politics of repeal | 19 |
| ONE | The 2018 abortion referendum: over before it began! Theresa Reidy | 21 |
| TWO | Explaining repeal: a long-term view Linda Connolly | 36 |
| THREE | “The only lawyer on the panel”: anti-choice lawfare in the battle for abortion law reform Fiona de Londras and Máiréad Enright | 53 |
| FOUR | Abortion pills in Ireland and beyond: what can the 8th Amendment referendum tell us about the future of self-managed abortion? Sydney Calkin | 73 |

| | | |
|---|--|------------|
| FIVE | Of trust and mistrust: the politics of repeal Elzbieta Drązkiewicz-Grodzicka and Máire Ní Mhórdha | 90 |
| PART II Campaigns and campaigning | | 107 |
| SIX | “Enough judgement”: reflections on campaigning for repeal in rural Ireland Mary McGill | 109 |
| SEVEN | Campaigning for choice: canvassing as feminist pedagogy in Dublin Bay North Niamh McDonald, Kate Antosik-Parsons, Karen E. Till, Gerry Kearns and Jack Callan | 124 |
| EIGHT | #Tá: pro-choice activism in the Irish language community Lisa Nic an Bhreithimh | 144 |
| NINE | Maser’s ‘Repeal the 8th’ mural: the power of public art in the age of social media Lorna O’Hara | 159 |
| TEN | Repealing a ‘legacy of shame’: press coverage of emotional geographies of secrecy and shame in Ireland’s abortion debate Eric Olund | 174 |
| PART III Futures: Ireland and beyond | | 189 |
| ELEVEN | Placing the Catholic Church: the moral landscape of repealing the 8th Richard Scriven | 191 |

| | | |
|----------|---|-----|
| TWELVE | Losing Ireland: heteroactivist responses to the result of the 8th Amendment in Canada and the UK Kath Browne and Catherine Jean Nash | 205 |
| THIRTEEN | The primacy of place: in vitro 'unborn' and the 8th Amendment Noëlle Cotter | 224 |
| FOURTEEN | Northern Ireland after repealing the 8th: democratic challenges Lisa Smyth | 239 |
| FIFTEEN | Reflections after the Irish referendum: abortion, the Catholic Church and pro-choice mobilisation in Poland Dorota Szelewa | 255 |
| | BIBLIOGRAPHY | 270 |
| | INDEX | 300 |