

Super-Diversity in Everyday Life

Edited by

Jan Willem Duyvendak, Nancy Foner and Philip Kasinitz

FEDERATION OF ETHNIC STUDIES
KULTURANTRYWISSENSCHEFTLICHE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der ICFE

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK

ETHNIC AND RACIAL STUDIES

Contents

Citation Information	vi
Notes on Contributors	viii
Introduction: super-diversity in everyday life Nancy Foner, Jan Willem Duyvendak and Philip Kasinitz	1
1 Pioneer migrants and their social relations in super-diverse London Susanne Wessendorf	17
2 Coming of age in multi-ethnic America: young adults' experiences with diversity Van C. Tran	35
3 Super-diversity as a methodological lens: re-centring power and inequality Sofya Aptekar	53
4 A discourse of displacement: super-diversity, urban citizenship, and the politics of autochthony in Amsterdam Paul Mepschen	71
5 "We have to teach them diversity": on demographic transformations and lived reality in an Amsterdam working-class neighbourhood Fenneke Wekker	89
6 What about the mainstream? Assimilation in super-diverse times Richard Alba and Jan Willem Duyvendak	105
7 Talking around super-diversity Steven Vertovec	125
Index	141