

Valentin Beck • Henning Hahn
Robert Lepenies
Editors

Dimensions of Poverty

Measurement, Epistemic Injustices, Activism

Springer

Contents

Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Poverty Measurement, Epistemic Injustices and Social Activism	1
Valentin Beck, Henning Hahn, and Robert Lepenies
Part I Poverty as a Social Relation
Beyond Poverty	23
Jonathan Wolff
Poverty as a Social Relation	41
Daniel Putnam
Metrics, Politics and Definitions: How Poverty Lost Its Social Context and What This Means for Current Debates	57
Philipp Lepenies
Part II Epistemic Injustices in Poverty Research
Scientific Ghettos and Beyond. Epistemic Injustice in Academia and Its Effects on Researching Poverty	77
Franziska Dübgen
Is the Debate on Poverty Research a Global One? A Consideration of the Exclusion of Odera Oruka’s ‘Human Minimum’ as a Case of Epistemic Injustice	97
Jonathan O. Chimakonam
Hairiness and Hairlessness: An African Feminist View of Poverty	115
Sharon Adetutu Omotoso
Western Academic Activism and Poverty Research: What’s Not to Like	131
Mitu Sengupta

Part III Philosophical Conceptions in Context

- Giving Well: Philanthropy for Human Rights 147
Patricia Illingworth
- Absolute Poverty in European Welfare States 163
Gottfried Schweiger
- Poverty, Wealth, and Aid: A Sociological Perspective 177
Bettina Mahlert

Part IV Measuring Multidimensional Poverty

- Multidimensional Poverty Measures as Policy Tools 197
Sabina Alkire
- Poverty: Beyond Obscurantism 215
Sanjay G. Reddy
- An Absolute Multidimensional Poverty Measure in the Functioning Space (and Relative Measure in the Resource Space): An Illustration Using Indian Data 225
Caroline Dotter and Stephan Klasen
- Poverty in All Its Forms: Determining the Dimensions of Poverty Through Merging Knowledge 263
Xavier Godinot and Robert Walker
- The Measurement of Multidimensional Poverty Across Countries: A Proposal for Selecting Dimensions 281
Francesco Burchi, Nicole Rippin, and Claudio E. Montenegro
- Capability Deprivation and the Relational Dimension of Poverty: Testing Universal Multidimensional Indexes 301
Nicolas Brando and Katarina Pitasse Fragoso
- Multidimensional Poverty Measurement: The Value of Life and the Challenge to Value Aggregation 321
Nicole Hassoun, Anders Herlitz, and Lucio Esposito

Part V Country Cases

- Mapping Out Non-monetary Dimensions of Well-Being by Ethnicity in Rural Cameroon 341
Hans Tino Ayamena Mpenya, Francis Menjo Baye, and Boniface Ngah Epo

Rising Tide of Precariat and Denizens in Neoliberal Capitalism: The Case of Germany	369
Eda Keskin
Measuring Capabilities: Using Financial Diaries in Bangladesh	385
Julio Linares and Yu-hsuan Su
Correction to: Measuring Capabilities: Using Financial Diaries in Bangladesh	C1
Name Index	405
Subject Index	407