

Black and Indigenous Resistance in the Americas

From Multiculturalism to Racist Backlash

A Project of the Antiracist Research and Action Network (RAIAR)

Edited by Juliet Hooker

Translated by Giorleny Altamirano Rayo, Aileen Ford, and Steven Lownes

LEXINGTON BOOKS
Lanham • Boulder • New York • London

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
Juliet Hooker
1 A Time to Recalibrate: Analyzing and Resisting the Americas- Wide Project of Racial Retrenchment	21
Charles R. Hale and Leith Mullings
2 “We Can No Longer Endure This Cruel Tyranny”: Colonialism, Racism, and Mapuche Resistance in Neoliberal Chile	67
Jaime Antimil Caniupan, Héctor Nahuelpan Moreno, and     Jakelin Curaqueo Mariano
3 Afro-Descendants in Colombia: Anti-Racist Struggles and the Accomplishments and Limits of Multiculturalism	93
Roosbelinda Cárdenas, Charo Mina Rojas, Eduardo Restrepo,     and Eliana Antonio Rosero
4 Racism and Maya Achi Resistance within the Contradictions of Neoliberal Multiculturalism	123
Rigoberto Ajcalón Choy, Aileen Ford, and Irma A. Velásquez     Nimatuj
5 Estamos Em Marcha! : Anti-Racism, Political Struggle, and the Leadership of Black Brazilian Women	159
Luciane O. Rocha
6 The Difficulties of Connecting Anti-Extractivist and Anti-Racist Struggles in Contemporary Bolivia: The Weight of Patriarchy	189
Pamela Calla

7	Racist Criminalization, Anti-Racist Pedagogies, and Indigenous Teacher Dissidence in the Montaña of Guerrero, Mexico	217
	Mariana Mora and Jaime García Leyva
8	Neoliberal Racism and the Movement for Black Lives in the United States	249
	Leith Mullings
	Afterword: Pan-Americanism and Anti-Racism	295
	Howard Winant
	Index	309
	About the Contributors	325