

Sexuality, Human Rights, and Public Policy

Edited by Chima J. Korieh
and Elizabeth O. Onogwu

FAIRLEIGH DICKINSON UNIVERSITY PRESS
Vancouver • Madison • Teaneck • Wroxtton

Contents

Introduction: Revisiting Gender, Sexuality, and Rights in Changing Times Chima J. Korieh and Elizabeth O. Onogwu	vii
I: Marriage and Mediated Representations of Sexuality and Spirituality	1
1 Desiring Justice Beyond Human Rights: Biopower and Sexual Citizenship Mary Bunch	3
2 Sexual Citizenship and Rights: Tracing Discontinuities in the Theory and Praxis of Sexual Rights Erick Monterrosas	19
3 Beyond Human Rights: Sexuality Conflicts in the Post-1990 Liberal Order Luke Amadi	31
4 What's Wrong with Marriage Rights? Paul Martorelli	53
5 Engaging Critical Gender Theory in Catholic Social Thought: An Emerging Conversation Rachel Bruns	73
6 Human Rights and Sexuality: Spiritual and Natural Companion Hannah Chukwu	93
7 Gender Hysteria: The Other Effect of Public Policy in Armenia Tamar Shirinian	115
8 Humor and Sexual Orientation: The Anti-Homosexual Politics of La Cage Aux Folles and Gazon Maudit Manfa Sanogo	131
II: Gender, Prostitution, and Sexual Violence	143
9 Prostitution, Gendered Urbanism, and Contested Sexuality Rights in Nigeria Obinna Innocent Ihunna	145

10	Policing Transactional Sex in Ireland: Legal Change, Neo-Abolitionism and the Neo-Liberal State? Eilis Ward	167
11	Exploring Alternative Proposals for Prostitution Laws through an Analysis of the Swedish and Dutch Models Sara Riva	185
12	Survivors of Sex Trafficking and Interpersonal Violence: Different or Similar? Stapenka Korytova and Toby Strout	201
13	“They Say I’m Gonna Be Their Little Girl”: The Co-Creation of the Dangerous Queer and the Racialized Rapeable Subject in Beyond Scared Straight Krista L. Benson	213
	Selected Bibliography	229
	Index	239
	Notes on Contributors	243
	About the Editors	247