

NEW DIRECTIONS IN THE ANTHROPOLOGY OF DREAMING

Edited by Jeannette Mageo and Robin E. Sheriff

REI SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

CONTENTS

List of figures	ix
List of contributors	x
Acknowledgments	xii
PART I
Introduction	1
1 Defining new directions in the anthropology of dreaming Jeannette Mageo	3
2 The anthropology of dreaming in historical perspective Robin E. Sheriff	23
PART II
New theoretical approaches to dreaming: implications for culture and identity	51
3 Metaphors we dream by: on the nature of dream cognition Jeannette Mageo	53
4 Identity and memory in Germany: the defensive role of dreams Matthew D. Newsom	72

viii Contents

5	Dreaming bloody murder: women's dreams of mortal threat, true-crime culture, and metonyms of gendered vulnerability Robin E. Sheriff	93
6	Dream sharing, play, and cultural creativity Kelly Bulkeley	114
PART III
Dream cultures: theoretical and ontological perspectives		135
7	Out-of-body on the happy hunting road: dialogues between dreaming and culture in Papua New Guinea Roger Ivar Lohmann	137
8	Taking dreams seriously: an ontological–phenomenological approach to Tzotzil Maya dream culture Kevin P. Groark	158
9	Godly dreams: Muslim encounters with the Divine Amira Mittermaier	183
10	Life is but a dream: culture and science in the study of Tibetan dream yoga and lucid dreaming Bruce M. Knauff	204
	Afterword: on the varieties and particularities of dreaming Douglas Hollan	226
	Index	234