
Frontiers of Folklore

Edited by William R. Bascom

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

Contents

Foreword	ix
About the Authors	x
1 Frontiers of Folklore: An Introduction-- William R. Bascom	1
2 Who Are the Folk?-- Alan Dundes	17
3 The Context of Folklore: Implications and Prospects-- Dan Ben-Amos	36
Introduction: Descriptive Folklore	36
Literature and Folk-Literature	37
Folk-Literature in Context	39
A Model for Contextual Folklore	43
4 Performance of Oral Narrative-- Harold Scheub	54
5 Toward an Enactment-Centered Theory of Folklore-- Roger D. Abrahams	79
Between Acts and Enactments	80
The Real and the Strange, and the Really Strange	87
Reality's Situation	93
Enactments: Types of Events We Look Forward To (Sometimes with Dread)	99

Performances, Rituals and Other Public Proceedings	105
Ritual and Play	109
6 Settlement Patterns on the Frontiers of Folklore-- Richard Bauman	121
Index	133