

FOLKLORE IN THE
UNITED STATES AND CANADA

An Institutional History

Edited by Patricia Sawin and Rosemary Lévy Zumwalt

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

Indiana University Press

Contents

Introduction / Patricia Sawin and Rosemary Lévy Zumwalt 1

Part I: Early Programs

- 1 The Quintessence of the Humanities: Folklore and Mythology at Harvard / Rachel C. Kirby and Anthony Bak Buccitelli 13
- 2 Bringing Ethnographic Research to the Public Conversation: Folklore at the University of North Carolina / Patricia Sawin 24
- 3 Teaching and Research at Laval University (Québec, Canada): From Folklore to Ethnology / Laurier Turgeon 38
- 4 The Folklife Connection: Ethnological Organization at Franklin and Marshall, Cooperstown, and Penn State Harrisburg / Simon J. Bronner 48

Part II: 1960s–70s Efflorescence

- 5 “The Great Team” of American Folklorists: Characters Large in Life and Grand in Plans / Rosemary Lévy Zumwalt 63
- 6 The Jewel in the Crown: Hallmarks of Success in Indiana University’s Folklore Program / Jeanne Harrah-Johnson 76
- 7 Folklore and Mythology Studies at UCLA / Michael Owen Jones 88
- 8 Of Politics, Disciplines, and Scholars: MacEdward Leach and the Founding of the Folklore Program at the University of Pennsylvania / Rosina S. Miller 98
- 9 Groundtruthing the Humanities: Penn Folklore and Folklife, 1973–2013 / Mary Hufford 109
- 10 Toward a Multigenealogical Folkloristics: The Berkeley Experiment / Charles L. Briggs 119
- 11 The Texas School / Richard Bauman 129

12	Memorial University's Folklore Program: Outsiders and Insiders / Lynne S. McNeill	142
13	A Century of Folklore Research and Teaching at Western Kentucky / Michael Ann Williams	152
14	Folklore at the University of Oregon: A History of Tradition, Innovation, and Pushing the Rock up the Hill / Sharon R. Sherman	164
15	From Ukrainian Studies to Folklore of the Prairies: The Kule Center for Ukrainian and Canadian Folklore, University of Alberta / Natalie Kononenko	174
16	Engagement with Community in Distinctive Folklore Concentrations: University of Louisiana at Lafayette / Marcia Gaudet and Barry Jean Ancelet	183
17	The Fife Legacy: Fifty Years of Folklore at Utah State University / Randy Williams	192
Part III: Newer Programs and Innovations
18	Folklife in the Nation's Capital: The George Washington University Experience / James I. Deutsch	205
19	The University of Wisconsin–Madison's Folklore Program and the Wisconsin Idea / Christine J. Widmayer and B. Marcus Cederström	213
20	Folklore at Brigham Young's Universities: Four Generations of Inter(con)textual Studies of Region, Religion, and Beyond / Jill Terry Rudy	222
21	The Mason Idea / Debra Lattanzi Shutika	232
22	Folklore and Interdisciplinarity at the Ohio State University / Patrick B. Mullen and Amy Shuman	239
23	Show Me Folklore: The Folklore, Oral Tradition, and Culture Studies Program at the University of Missouri / Claire Schmidt	252

24	This Is the Right Place for It: The Development of the Folklore Program at Cape Breton University / Jodi McDavid	262
25	Practical Cultural Work: The MA in Cultural Sustainability at Goucher College / Amy E. Skillman and Rory Turner	270
26	The Future out of the Past: The View from the Conference on the Future of American Folkloristics / Jesse A. Fivecoate, Kristina Downs, and Meredith A. E. McGriff	280
	Conclusion / Patricia Sawin and Rosemary Lévy Zumwalt	288
	Index	293