Jacqueline H. Fewkes
Editor

Anthropological Perspectives on the Religious Uses of Mobile Apps

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

1 Piety in the Pocket: An Introduction 1
Jacqueline H. Fewkes
Histories/Contexts 2
Blurring Boundaries: Ubiquitous Mobile Apps 4
Anthropological Perspectives 7
Book Organization 10
References 14

Part I Community, Contexts, and Practice

2 Sufi Remembrance Practices in the Meditation Marketplace of a Mobile App 19
Megan Adamson Sijapati
Introduction 19
A Mobile Meditation Marketplace 20
A Meditation Labyrinth: Labeling, Categorizing, and Experimental Encounters 24
From Onground to In-App, from dhikr to 'Meditation' 29
Concluding Reflections 37
References 40

3 An Ambivalent Jewishness: Half Shabbos, the Shabbos App, and Modern Orthodoxy 43
Robert Phillips
Introduction 43
Contemporary Jewish Movements 46
The Sabbath and the "Half-Sabbath" 47
Modern Orthodoxy and Technology 49
A Necessarily Abbreviated Case Study—the Shabbos App 51
Discussion 53
Conclusions 55
References 58

4 From Self-Learning Pathshala to Pilgrimage App: Studying the Expanding World of Jain Religious Apps 61
Tine Vekemans
Introduction: Jains and Digital Media 61
Sense and Method in Studying Religious Apps 63
Challenge One: Sampling for an App Corpus 64
Challenge Two: Structuring the Corpus 66
Why App? Jain Apps in Context 69
Themes in App Development Motivation 70
Ethnography as Reality Check 71
Ethnography to Contextualize Jain App Use 73
Concluding Thoughts: Toward an Anthropology of Mobile Applications 74
Concluding Thoughts: On Religious Apps 75
Recommendations 76
References 79

5 Latinx Muslims "Like" One Another: An Ethnographic Exploration of Social Media and the Formation of Latinx Muslim Community 83
Ken Chitwood
Introduction 83
Background, Definitions, Previous Literature, and Methodology 85
LMFG Cosmopolitan Identity Construction Themes 89
Everyday Piety 90

Digital Visual Culture 92
The Latinx Muslim Mythos 94
The Global Umma 97
Politics 98
Conclusion 99
References 102

Part II Authority, Subjectivity, and Networks of Knowledge

6 "Siri Is Alligator Halal?": Mobile Apps, Food Practices, and Religious Authority Among American Muslims 107
Jacqueline H. Fewkes
Methods, or What Does a Digital Ethnographer Do? 109
Muslims and Food Practices 110
Authority and Community in the Muslim American Digital Context 112
Scan Halal, a Food Finder App Case Study 115
Zabihah, a Food Site Finder App Case Study 119
Conclusions—And, Is Alligator Halal? 125
References 128

7 iPrayer: Catholic Prayer Apps and Twenty-First-Century Catholic Subjectivities 131
Katherine Dugan
Confession App: Lay Catholic Authority 133
Beads App: Rote Creativity 138
Pray App: Sacred Pragmatism 142
Conclusion 144
References 148

8 Mobile Apps and Religious Processes Among Pentecostal-Charismatic Christians in Zimbabwe 153
Josiah Taru
The Digital and Being Human: Beyond the Binary 153
OMG's Religious-Themed Mobile Applications 155
Online Religious Communities 156

Religious Communities, Identities and Personhood 160
In-App Charisma, Authority and Surveillance 163
Mobile Apps and Religious Entrepreneurs 166
Rituals 168
Conclusion 170
References 171

Part III Space, Mobility, and Materiality

9 Medieval "Miracle of Equilibrium" or Contemporary Shrine of "Rock-Hard Faith"?: The Role of Digital Media in Guiding Visitors' Experiences of Rocamadour, France 177
Deana L. Weibel
Introduction 177
Landscape and Rocamadour's Panorama 178
The Contested Image of Rocamadour 182
A Portable Panorama: Rocamadour in Smartphone Apps 185
Sacralizing the Secular 190
An Online Oratory 191
Repercussions and Conclusions 193
References 196

10 Bringing Creation to a Museum Near You 199
Lindsay M. Barone
The Creation Museum Model 200
Creationism, Museums, and the Quest for Cultural Reproduction 202
In the Museum 204
On the Creation Trail 205
Auditing the Museum 209
Conclusion 214
References 215

11 The JW Library App, Jehovah's Witness Technological Change, and Ethical Object-Formation 219
Danny Cardoza
Introduction 220
"Living a Spiritual Life," Ethical Subject-Formation, and Extending the Ethical Object 222
Watch Tower Artifacts and Ethical Object-Formation 224
Changing Views Toward ICTs: From an "Educationally Valuable but Sexually Deviant Cesspool" to Using www.jw.org/ in Christ's Way 226
A Brief Overview of the JW Library Mobile App 228
The Daily Text: JW Library as a Technology of Ethical Subject-Formation 230
Spiritual Haptics: JW Library as a Technology of Ethical Object-Formation 233
Conclusion: The Medium Is the Morality 235
References 237

Notes on Contributors 241

Index 245