

Iris Edenheiser
Elisabeth Tietmeyer
Susanne Boersma (Eds.)

What's Missing?

Collecting and Exhibiting Europe

FD SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

Reimer

Museum
Europäischer Kulturen
Staatliche Museen zu Berlin

Contents

PROLOGUE: SETTING THE SCENE	9
Elisabeth Tietmeyer
20 Years of the MEK – Have We Reached Our Goals?	10
Iris Edenheiser
Introduction – Towards New Filters and Relations	15
Suay Aksoy
What's Missing? – Sticking to the Margins	19
Wolfgang Kaschuba
Between Cultural Heritage and Looted Art – European Museums in Turbulent Times	23
FILLING THE GAPS AT THE MEK: 4 OBJECTS AND STORIES	26
Iris Edenheiser and Albert Gouaffo
Kum'a Mbape and Ndumb'a Lobe on a Berlin Pictorial Broadsheet	26
Dachil Sado
The Leggings	28
Fatma Gul
Transnational Solidarity	30
Mieste Hotopp-Riecke
The Fez, Emancipation, and Homelands	32
PART I: GLOBAL EUROPE	35
Judith Schühle
Global Europe – Of Objects, Objections and Objectifications	36
Gerald McMaster
(Re)Presenting the European – The Virtual Platform for Indigenous Art	38
Imani M. Tafari-Ama
Ontology of Objects – The Political Economy of Our Common Colonial Heritage	47
Akiko Mori
Exhibiting Europe in an Ethnological Museum in Japan – Redefining the Opposition Between Self and Other	56
Diana Pardue
Treasures from Home – European Identities in the Ellis Island Immigration Museum
A Photo Essay	64
FILLING THE GAPS AT THE MEK: 4 OBJECTS AND STORIES	72
Hans-Joachim Gruda
#CollectingCorona	72
Eva Chevallier-Kausel
Yellow Vests	74

Judith Schühle
Here to Stay or Here to Go?	76
Hermann Simon
Hanukkah Calendar	78
PART II: TRANSFORMING COLLECTIONS, REIMAGINING EVERYDAY OBJECTS	81
Magdalena Buchczyk
Pandora's Box? Transforming Everyday Collections	82
Denis Chevallier
Collecting Contemporary Items to Study and Exhibit Social Issues – Experiences of the MuCEM, Marseilles, France	84
Małgorzata Oleszkiewicz
Between Collecting “Traditional Folk Culture” and the Challenges of Contemporary Collection Policies – Current Dilemmas Facing Ethnographic Museums	92
Eeva-Kristiina Harlin
Ládjogahpir Rematriated – The Sámi Ontology of a Museum Object	101
Erica Lehrer
From “Heritage Communities” to “Communities of Implication”	113
FILLING THE GAPS AT THE MEK: 4 OBJECTS AND STORIES	122
Swantje Köbsell
“There’s Never Anyone Like Me...”	122
Saad Malik
Queerness – Free Delivery to Your Home!	124
Ace North
Revoking the Future	126
Marlen Mouliou and Sophia Avramidou
The “Greek Crisis” and the Tale of an Unemployment Card	128
PART III: MUSEUM METHODS AND STRUCTURES	131
Iris Edenheiser
Open the Gates – Museum Methods and Structures	132
Ferda Ataman and Susan Kamel
Our Heymat! Your Museum? – Towards a More Diverse Museum Culture	134
Matthias Beittl
Collecting is Communicating	139
Mahret Ifeoma Kupka
Contemporary Muslim Fashions – Racism and Diversity in European Museums	147
Matt Smith and Richard Sandell
Bringing Queer Home	154
Marlen Mouliou
Absences and Silences in Greek Museums – Tracing the Gaps in Untold Stories	165

FILLING THE GAPS AT THE MEK: 4 OBJECTS AND STORIES	174
Beate Wild
The Most Fragile in Bubble Wrap	174
Jane Redlin
Cosplay	176
Elisabeth Tietmeyer
What's Missing?	178
Magdalena Buchczyk
Horezu Bowl	180
PART IV: EXHIBITING EUROPE?	183
Brigitte Heck
Another Story to Tell? New Narrations for European Exhibitions	184
Anna Schmid
Europe as Blind Spot – Struggling for Connectivity	186
Kieran Burns
Mind the Gap(s)! – The Challenges of Delineating a Narrative at the House of European History	196
Klára Kuti
Community of Remembrance Versus the Politics of Memory – The Example of a Hungarian Museum	206
Markus Moehring
Cross-Border Exhibitions to Reflect Upon and Overcome National Imaginaries	214
FILLING THE GAPS AT THE MEK: 4 OBJECTS AND STORIES	224
Tina Peschel
What Am I Missing?	224
Jana Wittenzellner
Whereof One Cannot Speak... Should Not Be Collected?	226
Patricia Rahempour
“It’s sad to watch Europe rot from the inside out”	228
Irene Ziehe
Portrait of Amare Romagnas in a POW Camp	230
EPILOGUE: FROM MISSING TO FORGETTING	233
Sharon Macdonald
Seven Modes of Museum Forgetting	234
Susanne Boersma, Anne Chahine, Franziska Mucha and Inge Zwart
The Archive of Forgotten Memories – A Participatory Process of Reflection	241
Author Biographies	246
Colophon	250
