

Rita Braches-Chyrek (ed.)

The Future of Childhood Studies

Verlag Barbara Budrich
Opladen • Berlin • Toronto 2021

Contents

Rita Braches-Chyrek Preface	7
Jo Moran-Ellis Future-proofing childhood studies? If we can't predict the future, can we at least prepare for it?	8
Heinz Süner Social theory, social history and childhood studies – back to the future? Notes for a Research Program	23
Rita Braches-Chyrek Poor child, rich child: the effects of social processes on inclusion and exclusion	47
Doris Bühler-Niederberger Intergenerational solidarities – toward a structural approach to childhood sociology	54
Miriam Böttner The generational order perspective(s) and its implementation in childhood studies	70
Aytüre Türkyilmaz 'Toward the Past, the Future and the Present' – A Theoretical and Empirical Perspective on the Child as (Inter-)Actor	77
Nigel Thomas Childhood and Participation: between domination and freedom	94
Melanie Kubandt On self-reflection in childhood studies – The methodological-methodological challenge of understanding doing gender by children	104
Charlotte Röhner Children as Refugees	116

Christina Müller Children with migration experience in Germany – A Critical Reflection.....	128
Sabina Schutter What is a child? The ontological character of debates about the anchoring of children's rights in German Basic Law.....	137
Carina Fischer Different perspectives of professions on risk factors for child maltreatment.....	149
Margareth Sandvik Technologies as facilitators for children's literacy and language learning	159
Annika Heinel Digital Natives: Media as a new challenge and opportunity of Early Childhood Education	176
Contributors	191
Index	193