

Challenging Women's Agency and Activism in Early Modernity

Edited by
Merry E. Wiesner-Hanks

Amsterdam University Press

Table of Contents

List of figures and tables	7
Introduction	9
Merry E. Wiesner-Hanks

Part I Choosing and Creating

1. Bad Habits and Female Agency	25
Attending to Early Modern Women in the Material History of Intoxication
Angela McShane
2. Setting up House	65
Artisan Women's Trousseaux in Seventeenth-Century Bologna
Joyce de Vries
3. Crafting Habits of Resistance	85
Susan Dinan, Karen Nelson, and Michele Osherow

Part II Confronting Power

4. Confronting Women's Actions in History	107
Female Crown Fief Holders in Denmark
Grethe Jacobsen
5. Divisive Speech in Divided Times?	119
Women and the Politics of Slander, Sedition, and Informing during the English Revolution
Caroline Boswell
6. Why Political Theory is Women's Work	141
How Moderata Fonte Reclaimed Liberty for Women inside and outside Marriage
Caroline Castiglione

7. 'Wrestling the World from Fools' 163
Teaching Historical Empathy and Critical Engagement in Traditional and Online Classrooms
Jennifer Setwyn

Part III Challenging Representations

8. Thinking Beings and Animate Matter 183
Margaret Cavendish's Challenge to the Early Modern Order of Things
Mihoko Suzuki
9. The Agency of Portrayal 207
The Active Portrait in the Early Modern Period
Saskia Beranek and Sheila ffolliott
10. Marking Female Ocular Agency in the 'Medieval Housebook' 229
Andrea Pearson

Part IV Forming Communities

11. Claude-Catherine de Clermont 253
A Taste-Maker in the Continuum of Salon Society
Julie D. Campbell
12. Religious Spaces in the Far East 269
Women's Travel and Writing in Manila and Macao
Sarah E. Owens
13. Accounting for Early Modern Women in the Arts 283
Reconsidering Women's Agency, Networks, and Relationships
Theresa Kemp, Catherine Powell, and Beth Link
- Index 309