

Diana Riboli · Pamela J. Stewart ·
Andrew J. Strathern · Davide Torri
Editors

Dealing with Disasters

Perspectives from Eco-Cosmologies

FIDUCIARIA 1971
MILANO 1971
MILANO 1971

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

1	Introduction Diana Riboli and Davide Torri	1
2	“The War Has Just Begun.” Nature’s Fury Against Neocolonial “Spirit/s”: Shamanic Perceptions of Natural Disasters in Comparative Perspective Diana Riboli	19
3	The Spirits of Extractivism: Non-Human Meddling, Shamanic Diplomacy, and Cosmo-Political Strategy Among the Urarina (Peruvian Amazon) Emanuele Fabiano	43
4	Batek Cosmopolitics in the Early Twenty-First Century Ivan Tacey	75
5	Jinn Pinn Dance in the Floods: Perceptions of Flood Disasters Among the Kalasha of Pakistan Taj Khan Kalash	101

6	Eco-Cosmologies: Renewable Energy Pamela J. Stewart and Andrew J. Strathern	129
7	The Earth and the Tree in Alekh Shamanism in Koraput/Odisha Lidia Guzy	141
8	Sacred, Alive, Dangerous, and Endangered: Humans, Non-humans, and Landscape in the Himalayas Davide Torri	169
9	Shamanism, Magic, and Indigenous Ontologies: Eco-Critical Perspectives on Environmental Changes in India Stefano Beggiora	189
10	Unblocking the Blockage Between Earth and Heaven: Shamanic Space for Cultural Intimacy in China Naran Bilik	213
11	Burying Gold, Digging the Past: Remembering Ma Bufang Regime in Qinghai (PRC) Valentina Punzi	233
	Afterword: Reflections	255
	Index	259