

COLLABORATIVE ANTHROPOLOGY TODAY

A Collection of Exceptions

Edited by Dominic Boyer and George E. Marcus

FID SOZIAL- UND KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

Contents

---

Introduction	Dominic Boyer and George E. Marcus	1
1. How Do We Collaborate? An Updated Manifesto	Douglas R. Holmes and George E. Marcus	22
2. Imagination, Improvisation, and Letting Go	Keith M. Murphy	40
3. Ethnographic Reentanglements in the Collaborative Ecologies of Film and Contact Improvisation	Christine Hegel, with contributions from Luke Cantarella	54
4. Variations in the Ways That Collaborations Surround and Effect Ethnographic Research Projects: Addendum to Chapters 1–3	George E. Marcus	75
5. Function and Form: The Ethnographic Terminalia Collective between Art and Anthropology	Trudi Lynn Smith, Kate Hennessy, Stephanie Takaragawa, Fiona P. McDonald, and Craig Campbell	82
6. Limn : Experimenting with Collaboration	Stephen J. Collier, Martin Høyem, Christopher Kelty, and Andrew Lakoff	102
7. What’s So Funny ’bout PECE, TAF, and Data Sharing?	Mike Fortun, Lindsay Poirier, Alli Morgan, Brian Callahan, and Kim Fortun	115
8. A Collaborative Ethnography of Transnational Capitalism	Sylvia Yanagisako and Lisa Rofel	141
9. Hypernormalization, Collaborative Analytics, and the Making of “American StioB”	Alexei Yurchak and Dominic Boyer	151
10. An Account of the Cultures of Energy Podcast as Collaboration—Offered in Podcast Form, Of Course	Dominic Boyer and Cymene Howe	164

11. Crafting Lissa , an Ethno-Graphic Story: A Collaboration in Four Parts Sherine F. Hamdy and Coleman Nye	173
Afterword: A Conversation on the History of Anthropological Collaboration with Rebecca Lemov	202
Contributors	219
Index	227