

Mary Pepchinski, Christina Budde (eds.)

Women Architects and Politics

Intersections between Gender, Power Structures and Architecture in the Long 20th Century

[transcript]

Contents

Introduction

Mary Pepchinski, Christina Budde 9

I. The Politics of Representation (1): Gender, Memory, Care

Nicht zuschütten

A personal remembrance of Margarete Schütte-Lihotzky

Irene Nierhaus 21

Care Trouble

Thinking through gendered entanglements in architecture

Elke Krasny 27

II. Women Architects and the Experience of Exile, Migration and War

Gertrud Goldschmidt

Architect and Zionist

Sigal Davidi 47

“A small flock of female students”

Paul Schmitthenner's Meisterklasse in Tübingen, 1944-1945

Wolfgang Voigt 65

Judith Stolzer-Segall

A cosmopolite between Europe and Mandatory Palestine/Israel

Edina Meyer-Maril 85

Politics, Privilege and Architecture

Victoria zu Bentheim und Steinfurt (1887-1961), a pioneering woman architect in the tradition of the European high nobility during the 1930s and the 1940s

Karl Kiem 97

III. Women Architects in divided Europe 1945-1990

"Ideas that may be of benefit to your own country."

Two German women architects and the American Cultural Exchange Program during the early post-war years

Kerstin Renz 109

Conservative Ideology, Progressive Design

Planning SAFFA 1958

Katia Frey, Eliana Perotti 127

"I do not assert myself."

Women architects in State Socialist Hungary

Mariann Simon 147

Maria Schwarz

Architect, wife, widow

Annette Krapp 161

IV. Gender and Global Practice

Denise Scott Brown and Zaha Hadid

Peripheries and centers

Kathleen James-Chakraborty 179

V. The Politics of Representation (2): Women Architects on Display

Recording and Reflecting

On AAXX100AA Women in Architecture 1917-2017 Elizabeth Darling & Lynne Walker	199
---	-----

Frau Architekt

Two reasons and a résumé Christina Budde	215
--	-----

About Frau Architekt

Stéphanie Bouysse-Mesnager in conversation with Mary Pepchinski Stéphanie Bouysse-Mesnager, Mary Pepchinski	231
---	-----

VI. Engaging the Academy, Challenging the Profession

Making Difference

Reflections on teaching "Architectures of Gender" Torsten Lange & Gabrielle Schaad	243
--	-----

Introducing Gender and Spatial Theory to the Technical University of Darmstadt

Donna J. Drucker	261
-------------------------------	-----

A Gendered Profession

Reflections on an experiment Harriet Harriss and Ruth Morrow	275
--	-----

Authors	285
----------------------	-----