

WHO'S CASHING IN?

Contemporary Perspectives on New Monies and Global Cashlessness

Edited by

Atreyee Sen, Johan Lindquist, and Marie Kolling

FINANCIAL INCLUSION
AND THE FUTURE OF MONEY IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

berghahn
NEW YORK • OXFORD

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations
viii

Foreword
Keith Hart
ix

Introduction
Atreyee Sen and Johan Lindquist
xiv

Section 1. Cashlessness and New Debt Relations

Exclusively Simple:
The Impact of Cashless Initiatives on Homeless Roma in Denmark
Camilla Ida Ravnbøl
3

Debt and Dirty Names:
Tracing Cashlessness and Urban Marginality in Brazil
Marie Kolling
19

'Debt Is What Happens, While . . .'
The Emerging Field of Digital Finance and Precaritisation
in Everyday Lives of Young Danes
Pernille Hohnen
32

Plastic Promises:
Reflections on Credit and Debt in Emerging Cashless Economies

Filippo Osella

46

Section 2. Cashlessness and New Infrastructures

Ecologies of Immateriality:
Remittances and the Cashless Allure

Ivan V. Small

57

'Cards Are for Showing Off':
Aesthetics of Cashlessness and Intermedia-tion among the Urban Poor in Delhi

Emilija Zabliūtė

73

BoB and the Blockchain:
Anticipatory Infrastructures of the Cashless Society

Michael Ulfstjerne

89

As Above, So Below:
Reflections on the Democratisation of Demonetisation

Gustav Peebles

104

Section 3. Cashless Frictions and New Monetary Transitions

Borrowing from the Poor:
Informal Labour, Shifting Debt Relations and the Demonetisation Crisis in Urban India

Atreyee Sen

117

Notes on the 500 Euro:
On Mafias and Instituted Precarity
Theodoros Rakopoulos

131

At One with the Goods:
The Politics of Liquidity on Ulaanbaatar's Market Scene
Morten Axel Pedersen

143

Money in the Mattress and Bodies in the Market:
Reflections on the Material
Inger Sjørlev

156