

Study Abroad and the Quest for an Anti-Tourism Experience

Edited by
John J. Bodinger de Uriarte and
Michael A. Di Giovine

FID SOZIAL- UND KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
Ein Programm der Universität Wien

LEXINGTON BOOKS

Lanham • Boulder • New York • London

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	ix
Foreword: Studying Study Abroad Against the Neoliberal Grain Richard Handler	xi
Preface: COVID-19 and the Shifting Ground of Study Abroad John Bodinger de Uriarte and Michael A. Di Giovine	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
Introduction: Asking Questions about Study Abroad and Tourism Michael A. Di Giovine and John Bodinger de Uriarte	1
1 “Doing Good” and Doing It Quickly in East African Study Abroad Programs Jennifer Coffman and Miroslava Prazak	41
2 Two Weeks to Global Citizenship? The Problems, Paradoxes, and Successes of Running a Short-Term Travel Course Aaron Andrew Greer and Don D. Schweitzer	67
3 Safe-Guarding, Social-Pricing, and Labeling: Technologies of Border Construction and Discourses of Border Crossing in Study Abroad/Away Neriko Musha Doerr	89
4 The Imperative of Access in Short-Term Study Abroad: Provider Agencies, Liminality, and the Mediation of Cultural Difference Gareth Barkin	119

5	Forbidden Learning: The Challenge of Dispelling Post-colonial Tourist Imaginaries of Cuba through Study Abroad	149
	Aaron M. Lampman and Kenneth Schweitzer
6	Weekending Daring: Manufacturing the “Discomfort Zone” and Making the Study-Away Self	177
	John Bodinger de Uriarte
7	I Go to Cleanse My Head and Heart	195
	Katharine Serio
8	Schooling Taste: Culinary Tourism, Study Abroad, and Food	215
	Melissa Biggs
9	Teaching and Learning Food and Sustainability in Italy: Betwixt and Beyond Touristic Consumption	235
	Elisa Ascione
10	Finding Home, Identity, and Meaning in Study-Abroad Programs Targeted to Heritage Students	259
	Annie Nguyen
11	Between Tourism and Anti-Tourism: The Ethical Implications of Study Abroad	281
	Michael A. Di Giovine
	Epilogue: Questioning the Future of Study Abroad in a Post-COVID-19 World	325
	Michael A. Di Giovine and John Bodinger de Uriarte
	Afterword: Keeping Study Abroad Real	347
	Lisa Breglia
	Index	351
	About the Contributors	361