

---

Exploring Diary Methods in Higher Education Research

---

Opportunities, Choices and Challenges

Edited by
Xuemeng Cao and Emily F. Henderson

---

Contents

---

List of illustrations	viii
List of contributors	ix

Introduction: The (re)naissance of diary method research in and beyond higher education studies	1
XUEMENG CAO AND EMILY F. HENDERSON

PART I
Critically designing and evaluating diary studies	13
1 Using diaries in mixed methods designs: Lessons from a cross-institutional research project on doctoral students' social transition experiences	15
JENNA MITTELMEIER, BART RIENTIES, KATE YUE ZHANG AND DIVYA JINDAL-SNAPE
2 How short is too short?: Exploring diary study duration from the perspective of researching conferences and other short-term phenomena in higher education and beyond	29
EMILY F. HENDERSON
3 Audio diaries: A creative research method for higher education studies in the digital age	44
DANGENI, DELY LAZARTE ELLIOT AND CAROLE MACDIARMID
4 Broadening the normative and evaluative space for assessing the impact of photo diary research in higher education: A capabilities approach	58
MIKATEKO MATHEBULA AND CARMEN MARTINEZ-VARGAS

PART II

Exploring the nuances of the diary research process	71
5 Researcher–participant ‘win–win’ in diary research: Participant recruitment and retention in a longitudinal diary-interview study on employability management XUEMENG CAO	73
6 ‘I’m not really sure why I took that!’: Exploring the forms of diarying present in the participant-generated photo-elicitation method MICHAEL KEENAN	87
7 Reactivity, rationality, emotion and self-protection: Critical reflections on the use and potential of diaries in research on higher education choice and decision-making ZOE BAKER	102
8 Telling their own story in their own way: Negotiating the ethics of a diary-like photo-elicitation method to capture faith and belief from students’ own starting point SARAH LAWTHER	115

PART III

The importance of diaries for researching hidden issues	129
9 Accessing silenced voices?: Diary method as a source of data for understanding higher education experiences of students from socially excluded groups NIDHI S. SABHARWAL, ROMA SMART JOSEPH, ANIL CHINDHA BANKAR AND AVINASH VASANTRAO TALMALE	131
10 Using photo diaries as an inclusive method to explore information experiences in higher education BEN WATSON AND JENNIFER LEIGH	145
11 Closer to the feeling?: Exploring diary methods for higher education research on affective phenomena JAMES BURFORD	161
12 The diary method and its power to record the routine and forgettable in the language lives of international students OLIVIA GROVES	175

Afterword: Ensuring the continued success of diary research in higher education	190
LAURI L. HYERS AND JENNA WALMER
Index	201