

ENHANCING STUDENT EDUCATION TRANSITIONS AND EMPLOYABILITY

From Theory to Practice

Thanh Pham and Behnam Soltani

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	vii
1 An overview of student transition experiences and the significance of ‘capitals’ Thanh Pham	1
PART I
School to tertiary education transitions	15
2 Student transition experiences: Key concepts and exemplar investigation models Thanh Pham	17
3 Navigating post-school trajectories: A conceptual framework of key determinants and essential resources Thanh Pham	34
4 International students’ socialisation and transition experiences in high school: An empirical study Behnam Soltani	49

PART II

Education to work transitions	67
5 Transitioning from education to the labour market: What matters and essential resources for positive employability outcomes Thanh Pham	69
6 Transitioning to vocational education: An investigation in experiences of international students Behnam Soltani	88
7 Transitioning to the home labour market: What counts, what matters and what are the strategies? Thanh Pham	106
8 Transitioning from university to the teaching profession: Challenges of beginning teachers Thanh Pham	122
9 Reconceptualise graduate employability: The role of ‘capitals’ in navigating the teaching profession Thanh Pham	136
10 Strategies utilised by international graduates to overcome communication limitations and negotiate employability trajectories Thanh Pham	153

PART III

Recommendations to develop practical resources for different stakeholders	173
11 Enhancing student transition experiences: The role of students in proactively building essential resources Thanh Pham and Behnam Soltani	175
12 Enhancing student transition experiences: The role of institutions in creating opportunities for students to build essential resources Thanh Pham and Behnam Soltani	192
13 Enhancing student transition experiences: Initiatives guiding the development of essential resources Thanh Pham and Behnam Soltani	205

Index	224
--------------	-----