

Doing Fieldwork at Home

The Ethnography of Education in Familiar Contexts

Edited by
Loukia K. Sarroub and Claire Nicholas

ROWMAN & LITTLEFIELD
Lanham • Boulder • New York • London

Contents

Introduction: In the Field at Home	1
Loukia K. Sarroub and Claire Nicholas
1 Fieldworking at Home: Exploring the Experiences and Strategies of Student Nurses and Veterinary Students	7
Vibeke Røn Noer and Camilla Kirketerp Nielsen
2 Identity, Positionality, and Discovery: Researching Race in Local Context	21
Phillip Ryan and Mary Anne Poe
3 Can Basque be Protected in Multiethnic Environments? Methodological Dilemmas in Basque School Ethnography	37
Elizabeth Pérez-Izaguirre
4 Navigating Insideriness in a Study of Newcomers' Construction of Citizen Identities	51
Tricia Gray
5 "You Pulled the Chair from Right Under Me!" How a Black Young Man Disappears from a High School Reading Class	67
Loukia K. Sarroub
6 Gaining Access to Students' Informal Conversations with Peers: An Explorative Approach on Educational Research and Staging of Recording Devices	79
Charlotta Rönn
7 Home and Away: Crafting an Engaged Ethnography of Textile and Entrepreneurship Training	91
Claire Nicholas and Surin Kim

8	Collaborative Intersectionality in Researcher-Participant Relations at a Hispanic Serving Institution	103
	Jen Stacy
9	Being a Researcher-Teacher in an Action-Oriented School Research Project on Welding: Perspectives, Positions, and Ethical Dilemmas	119
	Stig-Börje Asplund, Nina Kilbrink, and Jan Axelsson
10	Teachers as Ethnographers in Schools: Research Dynamics at a Waldorf School in the Philippines	135
	Thijs Jan van Schie
11	The Familiar and the Foreign: The Schooling of System-Involved Youth	149
	Sarah Staples-Farmer
	Onward	165
	Loukia K. Sarroub
	Bibliography	167
	Index	179
	Author Biographies	185