

Transforming Ethnomusicology

Methodologies, Institutional Structures & Policies

Volume I

Edited by

BEVERLEY DIAMOND

AND

SALWA EL-SHAWAN CASTELO-BRANCO

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Ethnomusicological Praxis: An Introduction Beverley Diamond and Salwa El-Shawan Castelo-Branco	1
1. Changing Praxis and Ethical Practice: Lessons for Ethnomusicology from Applied Anthropology Anthony Seeger	25
2. The International Council for Traditional Music and Society for Ethnomusicology: A Reflection through Two Complementary Lenses Svanibor Pettan	43
3. Collaborative Ethnography: Trends, Developments, and Opportunities Luke Eric Lassiter	59
4. Sincerely Outspoken: Toward a Critical Activist Ethnomusicology David A. McDonald	73
5. "How Is That Going to Help Anyone?": A Critical Activist Ethnomusicology Oliver Y. Shao	87
6. Praxis through HONK!: The Rise of Politically Active Street Bands in the United States Becky Liebman	101
7. Zafè Fatra (The Affair of Trash) and the Affair of Scholarly Engagement: Can Music (and Music Scholarship) Really Clean Up the Streets of Port-au-Prince? Rebecca Dirksen	110
8. Engaged Activist Research: Dialogical Interventions toward Revitalizing the Chinese Glove Puppet Theater in Penang Tan Sooi Beng	131
9. On Not Knowing: Academically Based Community Service, Faith-Based Organizations, and the Transformation of Ethnomusicological Praxis Carol Ann Muller and Nina C. Öhman	151

10. Performing Transitional Justice: Song, Truth-Telling, and Memory in South Sudan Angela Impey	169
11. Witnessing: A Methodology Deborah Wong	187
Contributors' and Editors' Personal Statements	203
Bibliography	211
Index	259