

The Construction and Dynamics of Cultural Icons

Edited by Erica van Boven and Marieke Winkler

Amsterdam University Press

Table of Contents

Introduction	11
The Construction and Dynamics of Cultural Icons Erica van Boven and Marieke Winkler
I People
The Iconization and Mythologization of Byron's Life and Work in Nineteenth-Century Netherlands and Europe Jan Oosterholt	27
Lenin as Cultural Icon Maria Brock	45
Brigitte Bardot: The Making, Recycling, and Afterlife of an Icon Ginette Vincendeau	63
II Places
The Renaissance at a Glance The Panoramic View of Florence Paul van den Akker	83
Iconic City Thrillers Encoding Geopolitics Through Cinema Rui Lopes	111
City Branding Historical Culture and the Making of 'Hanzestad Zwolle' Frank Inklaar	129
III Objects
National Treasure Tea Bowls as Cultural Icons in Modern Japan Meghen Jones	151

What to Lea(f) In, What to Lea(f) Out Pedagogical Opportunities of a Cultural Icon – Anne Frank's Chestnut Tree Kirsten E. Kumpf Baele	171
Exploring the Iconic in History Museums Pieter de Bruijn	189
Hitler Goes Pop Reflections on Media Representation and Collective Memory Yvonne Delhey	209
Author Biographies	229
Index of Names	233
List of Images
Image 1	Lord Byron . Engraving by Charles Turner, published by Anthony Molteno, after Richard Westall, published 15 July 1825 National Portrait Gallery, London	29
Image 2	The Modern Prometheus, or Downfall of Tyranny . Print by George Cruikshank, satire on Napo- leon's exile to Elba (1814) British Museum, London	34
Images 3 and 4	Soviet Propaganda Posters depicting Lenin Public domain	48
Image 5	Brigitte Bardot during the Venice Film Festival Venice, Italy, 1958 Photo by Mario De Biasi Wikimedia Commons	64
Image 6	Florence seen from the Piazzale Michelangelo, 2009 Photograph by the author	84
Image 7	Domenico Ghirlandaio, Visitation , 1485-1490, fresco Capella Maggiore (Tornabuoni Chapel), Santa Maria Novella, Florence	85