

Intercultural Memories

Contesting Places, Spaces, and Stories

Edited by Ahmet Atay, Yea-Wen Chen, and Alberto González

PETER LANG

New York • Bern • Berlin

Brussels • Vienna • Oxford • Warsaw

Table of Contents

Introduction: Intercultural Communication, Memory, and Stories	1
AHMET ATAY, YEA-WEN CHEN, AND ALBERTO GONZÁLEZ
Cultural Memories of Places and Spaces
1. Communities of Memory, Coalition, and Race Trauma: The Moore's Ford Lynching Reenactment	13
PETER EHRENHAUS AND A. SUSAN OWEN
2. (Be)Coming Home: Transformative Places and Koreamerican Identity in Itaewon, South Korea	33
EUN YOUNG LEE AND ALBERTO GONZÁLEZ
3. When "Chiang Kai-shek Memorial Square" Became "Liberty Square": A Case of Contested Public Memories in Taiwan	53
YEA-WEN CHEN AND CHUNYU ZHANG
4. Remembering Communism: The Site of Witness and Memory and the House of Leaves Museums in Albania	69
NINA GJOCI
Cultural Memory, Identity Politics, and Intersectionality
5. (Mis)Remembering Stonewall: Narrative Authority and the American Monomyth in Queer Public Memory	95
KATHRYN HOBSON, BERNADETTE MARIE CALAFELL, AND SPENCER B. MARGULIES
6. Queer Fantasy: A Memory of Michael Sam's Big Gay Kiss	115
SHINSUKE EGUCHI

7. Photographs as Diasporic Memories: Turkish Cypriots, Home, and Memory	135
AHMET ATAY
8. Displaced Memorials: Commemorating the “Comfort Women” in the United States	149
MARIKO IZUMI
9. “Funk Isn’t a Trend; It’s a Necessity”: Favela Funk’s Vernacular Discourse and the Struggle for Cultural Legitimation	163
RAQUEL MOREIRA
Contributors	183
Index	187