

MARGINAL FIGURES
IN THE GLOBAL MIDDLE AGES
AND THE RENAISSANCE

Edited by
MEG LOTA BROWN

BREPOLS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction MEG LOTA BROWN	xi
1. One-World Ambitions: Reading Donne's Globalism Otherwise Post-9/11 ARNAUD ZIMMERN	1
2. The Convergence of the Twain: Early Modern Encounters between Japan and Britain PAUL HARTLE	29
3. Representations of the Plowman and the Prostitute in Puritan and Anti-Puritan Satire: Or the Rhetoric of Plainness and the Reformation of the Popular in the Harvey-Nashe Quarrel KYLE DIROBERTO	55
4. The Darkside of Celtic Mythology: The Evil Eye, Evil Creatures, and the Frightening Side of the Otherworld ANGELA LOEWENHAGEN SCHRADER	95
5. Women Wearing the Pants: Cross-dressing and Performativity in Early Modern Drama ELIZABETH LABINER	109
6. Assassins and the Old Man of the Mountain in Medieval Literature: The Evidence of Der Stricker's Daniel von dem Blühenden Tal ALBRECHT CLASSEN	123
7. Designing Disgrace: Early Modern Female Artists Creating in the Margins MEG LOTA BROWN AND KARI BOYD MCBRIDE	141
8. "Die a King": Gonzalo Pizarro's Rebellion in the Second Part of the Royal Commentaries JAMES W. FUERST	165

9. Veiled Truths: Early Modern European Travel Accounts of Ottoman and Safavid Women LINDSAY WEILER-LEON	187
10. Early Modern Retellings of Pre-Conquest Maya Femininity: The Xtabay Legend and Its Resonances SHARONAH ESTHER FREDRICK	203
Contributors	223