

Environmental and Animal Abuse Denial

Averting Our Gaze

Edited by Tomaž Grušovnik, Reingard Spannring, and Karen Lykke Syse

LEXINGTON BOOKS

Lanham • Boulder • New York • London

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction: Denialism in Environmental and Animal Abuse Tomaž Grušovnik, Reingard Spannring, and Karen Lykke Syse	1
1 From Denial to Moral Disengagement: How Integrating Fundamental Insights from Psychology Can Help Us Better Understand Ongoing Inaction in the Light of an Exacerbating Climate Crisis Susanne Stoll-Kleemann	17
2 Denial as a Sense of Entitlement: Assessing the Role of Culture Arne Johan Vetlesen	35
3 Skepticism and Animal Virtues: Denialism of Animal Morality Tomaž Grušovnik	55
4 Human Uniqueness, Animal Minds, and Anthropodenial Adam See	71
5 Suffering Animals: Creaturely Fellowship and Its Denial Craig Taylor	89
6 Brave New Salmon: From Enlightened Denial to Enlivened Practices Martin Lee Mueller and Katja Maria Hydle	103
7 The Animal That Therefore Was Removed from View: The Presentation of Meat in Norway, 1950–2015 Karen Lykke Syse and Kristian Bjørkdahl	127

8	Political Economy of Denialism: Addressing the Case of Animal Agriculture	145
	John Sorenson and Atsuko Matsuoka
9	Celebrate the Anthropocene? Why “Techno-Eco-Optimism” Is a Strategy of Ultimate Denial	169
	Helen Kopnina, Joe Gray, Haydn Washington, and John Piccolo
10	The Horse in the Room: The Denial of Animal Subjectivity and Agency in Social Science Research on Human–Horse Relationships	187
	Reingard Spannring and José De Giorgio-Schoorl
11	Still in the Shadow of Man? Judicial Denialism and Nonhuman Animals	201
	Opi Outhwaite
	Index	221
	About the Contributors	229