

Reverberations

---

Violence Across Time and Space

Edited by Yael Navaro, Zerrin Özlem Biner,
Alice von Bieberstein, and Seda Altuğ

FD SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

PENN

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA PRESS
PHILADELPHIA

CONTENTS

---

---

Introduction. Reverberations of Violence Across Time and Space Yael Navaro, Zerrin Özlem Biner, Alice von Bieberstein, and Seda Altuğ	1
PART I. SPACES OF DEATH
Chapter 1. Chronicling Deaths Foretold: The Testimony of the Corpse and the Problem of Political Violence in South Africa Rosalind C. Morris	33
Chapter 2. Speculating on Death: Treasure Hunting in Present-Day Moush Alice von Bieberstein	63
Chapter 3. Culture of Dispossession in the Late Ottoman Empire and Early Turkish Republic: Land, Ethnoreligious Difference, and Violence Seda Altuğ	83
PART II. VIOLENCE AND THE SUPERNATURAL
Chapter 4. Violence and Spirituality: Khidr Cosmography at the Turkish/Syrian Territorial Interface Yael Navaro	117

Chapter 5. Icons of Uncaring: Borderland Cartographies of Icon Making Connie Gagliardi and Valentina Napolitano	144
Chapter 6. Digging: The Spiritual-Material Imagination of (Dis)possession in Mardin, Southeast Turkey Zerrin Özlem Biner	158
Chapter 7. Maskun : Two Landscapes of War Munira Khayyat	186
PART III. VIOLENCE AGAINST NATURE AND INFRASTRUCTURAL VIOLENCE
Chapter 8. Infrastructural Violence in Jerusalem: Abjection, Incorporation, and Resistance in the “Cyborg City” Hanna Baumann	207
Chapter 9. Tenses of Violence: Ruination and Accumulation Along the Çoruh Valley, Turkey Erdem Evren	233
Chapter 10. The Wounded Landscape: Mass Trauma, Memory, and Human-Object Relations Shannon Lee Dawdy	255
Chapter 11. Architectural Witnessing at the Former Madımak Hotel in Sivas, Turkey Eray Çaylı	277
Afterword. Reverberations of Political Violence Penelope Harvey	295
Contributors	311
Index	313
Acknowledgments	317