

STOLEN CARS

A Journey Through São Paulo's
Urban Conflict

Edited by

GABRIEL FELTRAN

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

WILEY

ijurr STUDIES IN URBAN AND SOCIAL CHANGE
BOOK SERIES

Contents

Notes on Contributors	viii
Series Editors' Preface	x
Introduction	1
Gabriel Feltran
A Phone Call	7
A Global Market	9
Theoretical Framework: Normative Regimes	11
Inequalities	18
Methods: About Journeys, Tacking, and Our Collaborative Research Team	21
A Collective Research Team	27
Ethical Issues, Diversity, and Typical Days	29
Chapter Structure	31
1 Crime, Violence, and Inequality in São Paulo	37
Gregorio Zambon and Gabriel Feltran
7 a.m. (Fiat Strada)	39
10:00 a.m. (Hyundai HB20)	43
5:15 p.m. (Fiat Palio)	47
8:40 p.m. (Ford Ka)	53
Urban Violence and Market Regulation	56
2 State Reaction	63
Gabriel Feltran
Police Use of Lethal Force	66
Imprisonment	74
The "Clearing of Public Roads"	78
Political Legitimation	80
3 Designing the Market	87
Deborah Fromm
Insurance as a Mediator	94
The Automobile Business: From the Streets of São Paulo to the Panama Papers	99

vi Contents

4	Auctions and Mechanisms	104
	André de Pieri Pimentel and Luiz Gustavo Simão Pereira
	Central Circuits: Insurance Companies that Sell at Auctions	109
	Some Numbers	111
	Marginal Circuits: Car Dealerships and Chop-shops that Buy at Auctions	115
	Auctioneers: Economics and Politics	121
5	Dismantling a Stolen Car	127
	Isabela Vianna Pinho, Gregório Zambon, and Lucas Alves Fernandes Silva
	Family, Market, Politics	130
	Between Extremes: From “Recicla” to “Sheds”	135
	Prices and Stratification	143
6	Regulating an Illegal Market	147
	Luana Motta, Janaina Maldonado, and Juliana Alcântara
	A Brief Chronology of the Dismantling Law	149
	Old Practices, New “Political Merchandise”: The Everyday Experience of the Dismantling Law	152
	The Political Centrality of Police Officers	158
	Police Regulation and Violence	161
7	Not Criminals, Legislators	165
	Deborah Fromm and Luana Motta
	New Laws, New Markets	169
	Illegal Markets, Microfinance, Corporate Philanthropy	171
	Action and Reaction	174
	Parallel Insurance and the Protection Market	175
	The Law that Governs the Market, the Market that Governs the Law	181
8	Globalization and Its Backroads	187
	André de Pieri Pimentel, Gabriel Feltran, and Lucas Alves Fernandes Silva
	A Global Market and Its Margins	190
	Connecting Markets	194
	Urban Reconfigurations	198
	North–South Urban Inequalities	202

Conclusions	208
Gabriel Feltran
Afterword: Following Cars in a Latin American Metropolis: Inequality, Illegalisms, and Formalization	220
Daniel Veloso Hirata
References	228
Index	245