

ANTI-FEMINISMS IN MEDIA CULTURE

Edited by Michele White and Diane Negra

CONTENTS

List of contributors	vii
An Introduction to and Critique of Anti-feminisms Michele White	1
1 Vernacular Feminism: Whiteness, Femininity, and Gendered Discourses of Independence in 1920s Popular Fictions Yvonne Tasker	25
2 “A Matter of Survival”: The National Welfare Rights Organization, Black Feminism, and a Critique of Work Allison Page	45
3 Policing Integration, Punishing Sexual Freedom: Reactionary White Male Violence and the Politics of Rape in Civil Rights Exploitation Films Jacqueline Pinkowitz	60
4 The Illegibility of Asian American Feminism On Screen L.S. Kim	80
5 Something Else Besides a Feminist: Little Fires Everywhere and Hollywood Anti-feminism Leigh Goldstein and Meenasarani Linde Murugan	101

vi Contents

6	White Feminism and White Tears as Bad Objects Suzanne Leonard	120
7	Making Kin with Whiteness: Feminist Seductions of the Unwatchable Mila Zuo	138
8	Beware the Dancing Communist: Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, Snap-lash, and the Politics of Embodied Joy Jessalynn Keller	158
9	Natural Hair Matters: On Autobiographical Black Girlfriend Selfie Culture and Social Media Anna Everett	176
	Index	197