

Re-Creating Anthropology

Sociality, Matter, and the Imagination

Edited by

David N. Gellner and Dolores P. Martinez

FD 55211/1 UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

Contents

List of Figures	ix
List of Contributors	x
Preface	xiii
1 Introduction: Social Anthropology as Scepticism, Empathy, and Holism	1
DAVID N. GELLNER
PART I
Time	17
2 ‘Not an Airy European Fantasy’ or How (De)Colonization Embeds the Anthropological Imagination	19
PETER PELS
3 Placing Time: Open, Wild, Drift	34
CAITLIN DESILVEY
4 Time and Permanence: In an Epoch of the Anachronic	45
MICHAEL ROWLANDS
5 Crisis, Prophecy, and Ethnography: Living in the Waste Land Then and Now	57
RAMON SARRÓ
PART II
Imagination and the Social	69
6 Interactional Glitches, Cooperation, and the Paradox of Public Joint Activities	71
ALESSANDRO DURANTI

7	Enskilment and the Emergent Imagination IZA KAVEDŽIJA	93
8	'She Talks to Angels': Spirit Becomings, Embodied Memories, and Affective Imagination Skills in Catholic Exorcism in Contemporary Italy ANDREA DE ANTONI	108
9	The Role of Unproved Ideas in the Production of Knowledge: A Case Study TIMOTHY JENKINS	126
10	The Light of a Piece: An Exploration of Materiality and Creative Practice in a Maine Landscape – Notes on a Film Screening ANNA GRIMSHAW WITH ELIZABETH HALLAM	138
PART III
Futures		161
11	Describing the Future: Predictability, Uncertainty, and Imponderability CHIHAB EL KHACHAB	163
12	Anthropocenic Reconfigurations: Socio-Natures and the Politics of Planetary Health MELISSA LEACH	178
13	Psychological Essentialism: An Anchoring for Anthropological Comparison RITA ASTUTI	195
	Afterword: Anthropology and Imagination's Techniques DOLORES P. MARTINEZ	210
	Index	222