

PRAXIS AS A PERSPECTIVE ON INTERNATIONAL POLITICS

Edited by
Gunther Hellmann and Jens Steffek

Contents

Notes on Contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
1 Introduction: Praxis as a Perspective on International Politics Gunther Hellmann and Jens Steffek	1
PART I Theorizing Praxis
2 Knowing, Remembering, Showing But Still Not Seeing: Critical Praxis, Slavery and the Modern 'We' K.M. Fierke	19
3 Friedrich Kratochwil: Prophet of Doubt? Cecelia Lynch	33
4 Styles of Theorizing International Practice Christian Bueger	51
5 Practising Theorizing in Theorizing Praxis: Friedrich Kratochwil and Social Inquiry Gunther Hellmann	72
PART II Praxis and the Law
6 If Not Rome or The Hague, Where? Reflections on Sanctioning and Punishing Chris Brown	97
7 Practical Constitutionalism Anthony F. Lang, Jr.	112
8 Rules, Institutions and Decisions: Taking Distribution Seriously Jan Klabbers	127
PART III Biology, Contingency and History
9 I Think, Therefore IR? Psychology, Biology and the Notion of Praxis James W. Davis	145
10 Practice, Intersubjectivity and the Problem of Contingency Oliver Kessler	166

11	The Praxis of Change and Theory Mathias Albert	182
12	Thinking on Time: How Scholarly Praxis Can Sustain, Subvert and Transform Social Reality Jörg Friedrichs	197
PART IV Theorizing as Intervention
13	Practising Academic Intervention: An Agonistic Reading of Praxis Antje Wiener	215
14	Between Science and Politics: Friedrich Kratochwil's Praxis of 'Going On' Patrick Thaddeus Jackson	234
15	Praxis, Humanism and the Quest for Wholeness Jens Steffek	255
PART V Conversing with Critics
16	Acting, Representing, Ruling: A Conversation with My Critics on Social Reproduction and the Logic of Social Inquiry Friedrich Kratochwil	275
	Index	300