

THE DISABILITY BIOETHICS READER

Edited by Joel Michael Reynolds and Christine Wieseler

CONTENTS

List of Tables	ix
List of Figures	x
Notes on Contributors	xi
Disability Bioethics: Introduction to The Disability Bioethics Reader Joel Michael Reynolds and Christine Wieseler	1
PART I
History, Medicine, and Disability	9
1 A Short History of Modern Medicine and Disability Michael Rembis	11
2 Eugenics, Disability, and Bioethics Robert A. Wilson	21
3 Theories of Disability Joel Michael Reynolds	30
PART II
Bioethics: Past and Present	39
4 A Critical History of Bioethics John H. Evans	41
5 Methods of Bioethics Alison Reiheld	50

vi Contents

- 6 Disability Bioethics: From Theory to Practice 61
Rosemarie Garland-Thomson

PART III

Philosophy of Medicine and Phenomenology 71

- 7 Disability and the Definition of Health 73
Sean Aas
- 8 The Lived Experiences of Illness and Disability 82
Havi Carel

PART IV

Prenatal Testing and Abortion 93

- 9 Abortion, Disability Rights, and Reproductive Justice 95
Elizabeth Dietz
- 10 A Fatal Attraction to Normalizing: Treating Disabilities as Deviations from “Species-Typical” Functioning 103
Anita Silvers
- 11 Being Disabled and Contemplating Disabled Children 116
Jackie Leach Scully
- 12 The Wrongs of ‘Wrongful Birth’: Disability, Race, and Reproductive Justice 125
Desiree Valentine

PART V

Disability, the Life Course, and Well-Being 135

- 13 Disability, Ideology, and Quality of Life: A Bias in Biomedical Ethics 137
Ron Amundson
- 14 The Case of Chronic Pain 147
Emma Sheppard
- 15 Chronic Illness, Well-Being, and Social Values 156
Lydia Nunez Landry
- 16 Disability and Age Studies: Obstacles and Opportunities 170
Erin Gentry Lamb

PART VI
Issues at the Edge and End of Life	181
17 Death, Pandemic, and Intersectionality: What the Failures in an End-of-Life Case Can Teach about Structural Justice and COVID-19	183
Yolonda Wilson
18 Disorders of Consciousness, Disability Rights, and Triage during the COVID-19 Pandemic: Even the Best of Intentions Can Lead to Bias	191
Joseph J. Fins
19 Bioethical Issues in Dementia and Alzheimer's Disease	203
Tia Powell
20 Between "Aid in Dying" and "Assisted Suicide": Disability Bioethics and the Right to Die	212
Harold Braswell
21 Theorizing the Intersections of Ableism, Sanism, Ageism and Suicidism in Suicide and Physician-Assisted Death Debates	221
Alexandre Baril
PART VII
Disability, Difference, and Health Care	233
22 Disability Bioethics and Race	235
Andrea J. Pitts
23 Bioethics and the Deaf Community	243
Teresa Blankmeyer Burke
24 Hunger Always Wins: Contesting the Medicalization of Fat Bodies	254
Anna Mollow
25 Trans Care within and against the Medical-Industrial Complex	263
Hil Malatino
PART VIII
Intellectual and Mental Disabilities	271
26 Defining Mental Illness and Psychiatric Disability	273
Laura Guidry-Grimes

viii Contents

27	Research Ethics and Intellectual Disability: Finding the Middle Ground between Protection and Exclusion Kevin Mintz and David Wasserman	282
28	Inconvenient Complications to Patient Choice and Psychiatric Detention: An Auto-ethnographic Account of Mad Carework Erica Hua Fletcher	292
29	Disability Bioethics, Ashley X, and Disability Justice for People with Cognitive Impairments Christine Wieseler	301

PART IX

Disability Bioethics: Connections and New Directions 313

30	Feminist Theorizing and Disability Bioethics Lauren Guilmette	315
31	Disability Bioethics and Epistemic Injustice Anita Ho	324
32	Disability Studies Meets Animal Studies David M. Peña-Guzmán	333

PART X

The Ends of Medicine: Caring, Curing, and Justice 343

33	Improving Access within the Clinic Nicole D. Agaronnik and Lisa I. Iezzoni	345
34	The Goals of Biomedical Technology Joseph A. Stramondo	358
35	“Why Insist on Justice, Why Not Settle for Kindness?” Kindness, Justice, and Cognitive Disability Eva Feder Kittay	367
36	Selections of Brilliant Imperfection Eli Clare	377

	Index	391
--	--------------	-----