

Spirit Possession

Multidisciplinary Approaches to a Worldwide Phenomenon

Edited by Éva Pócs and András Zempléni

CEU PRESS
Central European University Press
1100 University Avenue, New York, NY 10017
1100 University Avenue, New York, NY 10017

Central European University Press
Budapest - Vienna - New York

Table of Contents

List of Illustrations	IX
Foreword Éva Pócs and András Zempléni	XI
1 Discerning Spirit Possessions An Introduction András Zempléni	1
Part I Current Constellations of Spirit Possession Concepts
2 Reflecting on the Vocabulary of “Possession” in a South Indian Context Gilles Tarabout	53
3 “Incorporation Does Not Exist” The Brazilian Rejection of the Term “Possession” and Why It Exists Nonetheless Bettina E. Schmidt	75
4 “Figures of Return” The Catholic Church, the Holy Spirit and Embandwa Spirit Possession in Western Uganda Heike Behrend	93
5 Ideas about Spirit Possession and Anti-Devil Practices in the Religious Life of Some Eastern Hungarian Communities Éva Pócs	111
6 The Indigeneity of Spirit Possession A Contribution to Comparative Theory Mary L. Keller	193

Part II Transitions and Thresholds of Change in Possession Concepts and Practices

- 7 Specter, Phantom, Demon 215
Thomas J. Csordas
- 8 From Loudun to Dakar, and Back 229
Possession and Evil in Individualistic and Nonindividualistic Societies
Pierre-Henri Castel
- 9 Devil Possession in the Liturgy around the Tenth and Twelfth Centuries 247
Bringing Together the Body Like a Microcosm
Florence Chave-Mahir
- 10 East European Christian Prayers against Hailstorms 263
Aquatic Demons and Divine Powers in Canonical and Apocryphal Contexts
Emanuela Timotin
- 11 The Nightmare in Early Modern England 279
Janine Rivière

Part III Interactive Transformations of Popular and Official Possession Idioms and Practices

- 12 Spirit (rwḥ) in the Dead Sea Scrolls 299
Ida Fröhlich
- 13 Domesticating the Dead 313
Ghosts and Spirit Possession in Late Medieval Italy
Nancy Caciola
- 14 Demonic Possession in Orthodox Imperial Russia 323
Official and Popular Religious Conceptions through the Prism of an 1839–1840 Case Study
Christine D. Worobec

15	The Healing of the Possessed in Medieval Canonization Processes Gábor Klaniczay	343
16	The Sabbat of the Soul Sarah Ferber	361
17	Ideas of Possession in Eighteenth-Century Hungarian Clerical Thought Dániel Bárth	373

Part IV Possession and Social Reality: Possession as Indigenous Historiography

18	Possession, Communication and Power in Himachal Pradesh (North India) Daniela Berti	393
19	A Day-to-Day Family Chronicle with “Personages” in Madagascar Michèle Fiéloux and Jacques Lombard	415
20	Anthropological Spirits and Colonial Consciousness in Arabic-Speaking Sudan Janice Boddy	431
21	From Illness to Trance The Socialization of Spirit Possession in Senegal András Zempléni	455
22	On Spirit Possession and Some Parallels with Reincarnation Michael Lambek	487
	Contributors	505
	Name Index	515
	Subject Index	524
	Geographical Index	538