

Rhonda M. Shaw
Editor

Reproductive Citizenship

Technologies, Rights and Relationships

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

1	Introduction: Reproductive Citizenship and Meanings of Infertility	1
	Rhonda M. Shaw
Part I	Technologies	29
2	Affective Animacy and Temporalities in Danish Women's Accounts of Cryopreserved Embryos	31
	Michael Nebeling Petersen
3	The Affective Temporalities of Ovarian Tissue Freezing: Hopes, Fears, and the Folding of Embodied Time in Medical Fertility Preservation	51
	Anna Sofie Bach
4	Trans Narratives of Fertility Preservation: Constructing Experiential Expertise Through YouTube Vlogs	75
	Alex Ker and Rhonda M. Shaw

5	Fertility and Fragility: Social Egg Freezing and the ‘Potentially Maternal’ Subject	101
	Julie Stephens
Part II Rights		125
6	Reproduction and Beyond: Imaginaries of Uterus Transplantation in the Light of Embodied Histories of Living Life Without a Uterus	127
	Lisa Guntram
7	Sized Out: Fatness, Fertility Care, and Reproductive Justice in Aotearoa New Zealand	153
	George Parker and Jade Le Grice
8	The Experience of Single Mothers by Choice Making Early Contact with Open-Identity or Private Sperm Donors and/or Donor Sibling Families in New Zealand	179
	Rochelle Trail and Sonja Goedeke
9	The Importance of a Genetic Link in Surrogacy Arrangements: Law, Public Opinion and Reconciling Conflict	203
	Debra Wilson
Part III Relationships		227
10	Surrogacy and the Informal Rulebook for Making Kin Through Assisted Reproduction in Aotearoa New Zealand	229
	Hannah Gibson
11	Constructing Gay Fatherhood in Known Donor-Lesbian Reproduction: ‘We get to live that life, we get to be parents’	253
	Nicola Surtees

12	Doing Reflexivity in Research on Donor Conception: Examining Moments of Bonding and Becoming	279
	Giselle Newton
13	Reproductive Choices and Experiences in Planning for Parenthood and Managing Infertility	303
	Sonja Goedeke, Maria Mackintosh, and Lara Grace
	Index	329