

Devendraraj Madhanagopal ·
Christopher Todd Beer · Bala Raju Nikku ·
André J. Pelser
Editors

Environment, Climate, and Social Justice

Perspectives and Practices from the Global South

THE SOCIAL JUSTICE
INSTITUTE
OF THE UNIVERSITY OF
SOUTH AFRICA

 Springer

Contents

Environment, Climate, and Social Justice: Interdisciplinary Voices from the Global South .....	1
Devendraraj Madhanagopal, Christopher Todd Beer, Bala Raju Nikku, and André J. Pelsler
Climate and Social Justice: Role for Social Work
The Social and Economic Implications of Environmental Justice for the Elderly: A Case for Social Work Interventions in the Caribbean .....	17
Debra D. Joseph and Roshnie A. Doon
The Human-Nature Nexus: A Sustainability Framework for Social Work? .....	45
Antoinette Lombard
Disaster Injustice in the Coastal Region of Bangladesh: In Quest of Local Actors-Driven Recovery Intervention .....	61
Rabiul Islam
Governance, Policy Advocacy and Legal Activisms in the Global South
Advancing Climate Justice in Africa: A Survey of Civil Society Capacities, Geopolitical Trust, and Policy Advocacy .....	81
Christopher Todd Beer and Mithika Joseph M. Mwenda
Development of Community-Owned Renewable Energy (CORE) in South Africa .....	99
Meron Okbandrias
The Impact of Climate Change on the Gender Security of Indigenous Women in Latin America .....	117
Úrsula Oswald-Spring

Reflections of the Climate Justice Framework in Public Policies: The Bangladesh Perspective ..... 143
 S. M. Kamrul Hassan, Niaz Ahmed Khan, and Nashmiya Khanam

Climate Risks in an Unequal Society: The Question of Climate Justice in India ..... 161
 Devendraraj Madhanagopal and Vidya Ann Jacob

Litigating for Climate Justice—Chasing a Chimera? ..... 189
 M. K. Ramesh and Vidya Ann Jacob

Protected Areas as a Catalyst for Environmental Sustainability, Social Justice, and Human Development: Lessons from South Africa ..... 207
 André J. Pelsler

Critical and Social Movement Perspectives from the Global South

Indigenous Environmental Movements of Eastern India: Seeing Through Henri Lefebvre’s Spatial Lens ..... 229
 Tanaya Mohanty and Devendraraj Madhanagopal

Can the Global South Count on the U.S. Climate Movement? Support for Compensatory Climate Justice Among U.S. Climate Change Protesters ..... 255
 Christopher Todd Beer

Eco-Feminisms in Theory and Practice in the Global South: India, South Africa, and Ecuador ..... 275
 Devendraraj Madhanagopal, Patrick Bond, and Manuel Bayón Jiménez

Hydraulic Fracturing as an Environmental and Social Justice Issue in South Africa ..... 297
 Wade Goodrick and Nola Redelinghuys

Land Acquisition and a Question of “Justice”: Voices of the Unheard Marginal Groups in the Interior Odisha, India ..... 323
 Mohon Kumar Naik and Devendraraj Madhanagopal

Climate Change, Conflict, and Prosocial Behavior in Southwestern Bangladesh: Implications for Environmental Justice ..... 349
 Tuhin Roy, Md Kamrul Hasan, and M. M. Abdullah Al Mamun Sony

Ecological Justice in Post-COVID-19 Politics: The Role of Affective Ecologies and Amazonian Indigenous Ontologies ..... 371
 Maria Fernanda Gebara