

The Political Anthropology of Internationalized Politics

Edited by
Sarah Biecker and Klaus Schlichte

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

ROWMAN & LITTLEFIELD
Lanham • Boulder • New York • London

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
1 For an Extended Experience: The Political Anthropology of Internationalized Politics Sarah Biecker and Klaus Schlichte	1
PART I: NEW VANTAGE POINTS	27
2 Conducting “Field Research” When There Is No “Field”: Some Notes on the Praxiographic Challenge Christian Bueger	29
3 The Possibilities and Limits of Ethnography: Two Examples from Syria and Jordan Sophia Hoffmann	47
4 Zooming in Dissolves the Taken-for-Granted and Allows to Reconstruct Its Production: Toward a Political Anthropology of Global Health Governance as Lived Order Julian Eckl	67
PART II: LOCAL ARENAS OF INTERNATIONALIZED POLITICS	95
5 Emic Security: An Anthropological Approach to Security Tessa Diphorn	97
6 Dynamic Security and the Scientific Exotic: Vernacularization and Practical Norms in Ugandan Prisons Tomas Max Martin	115

7	The Value of “Staying Put” for the Study of International Peacebuilding: Insights from Somaliland Jessica L. Anderson	141
PART III: CATCHING HOW THE WORLD IS RULED		153
8	Depending on Money: Money as a Forceful Relation among Everyday Kenyans and in Kenya’s International Relations Kai Koddenbrock and Mario Schmidt	155
9	A State of Numbers: Bureaucratic Technologies of Government and the Study of Internationalized Politics Sarah Biecker and Klaus Schlichte	177
	Afterword Jean-Pierre Olivier de Sardan	199
	Index	205
	About the Contributors	209