

Remarriage and Stepfamilies in East Central Europe, 1600–1900

Edited by Gabriella Erdélyi and András Péter Szabó

Contents

List of Maps and Figures	vii
List of Tables	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
List of Contributors	xii

Introduction: Remarriage Patterns and Stepfamily Relationships in East Central Europe	1
GABRIELLA ERDÉLYI

PART I

The Demography of Stepfamilies 35

1 Inheritance and Stepfamilies in Bohemian Rural Society (1650–1800)	37
ALICE VELKOVÁ

2 Magnate and Noble Stepfamilies in the Polish–Lithuanian Commonwealth from the Sixteenth to the Eighteenth Centuries	71
MARZENA LIEDKE AND PIOTR GUZOWSKI

3 Career Potentials of Stepchildren in the Lutheran Community of Pressburg (Bratislava, Slovakia) 1730–1850	105
ÁRPÁD TÓTH

4 Orphans and Stepchildren: The Impact of Parental Loss and Parental Remarriage on Children's First Marriages in Zsámbék in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries	142
PÉTER ÓRI

5	Marriage, Widowhood, and Remarriage in the Székely Land (1830–1939)	169
	SÁNDOR LAKATOS
PART II
	Egodocuments and Stepfamily Relationships	197
6	Mothering Half-Sisters: Maternal Love, Anger, and Authority in Early Modern Hungary	199
	GABRIELLA ERDÉLYI
7	Remarriage and Stepfamilies among the Lutheran Urban Elite in Seventeenth-Century Hungary. Neo-Latin Wedding Poetry as Source	224
	ÁGNES MÁTÉ
8	Roads to Recomposed Families of the Nobility in Seventeenth-Century Transylvania	252
	ANDRÁS PÉTER SZABÓ
9	Stepfamily Relations in Autobiographical Writings in Eighteenth-Century Transylvania	277
	ANDREA FEHÉR
10	“Her Children to Have as Children of Ours”: Stepfamilies in the Romanian Principalities in the Eighteenth and Early Nineteenth Centuries	303
	CONSTANȚA VINTILĂ
	Index	343