

Jörg-U. Keßler, Adi Binhas, Peter Fenn, Liat Yakhnich (eds.)

Migration

political, educational, gender and cultural aspects

Table of Contents

Introduction (Adi Binhas, Peter Fenn, Jörg-U. Keßler & Liat Yakhnich)	9
--	----------

Part I: Political Perspectives

Separate Memories – Common Future. Of the Need to Democratize Nation State Histories (Bärbel Völkel)	27
In Hopes of a Better Life: Syrian Families in Jordan and Their Onward Migration to Europe (Philipp Kühnlein & Silke Hachmeister)	51
One of Us? – Social Membership until Recall (Helmut Däuble & Stefanie Rhein)	93

Part II: Educational Perspectives

- On Sequential Traumatization and Its Meaning in the Work with Child- and Adolescent Refugees at School 125
(Stephan Gingelmaier & Minke Jakobi)
- “You Have to Start from Scratch and You Need Someone by Your Side”: Perspectives of Parents and Teachers on Immigrant Students’ Adaption to School 143
(Liat Yakhnich & Adi Binhas)
- Contempt as a Social Strategy 183
(Yuli (Yael) Tamir)

Part III: Gender Perspectives

Motherhood, Transnationalism and Social Capital. Looking inside the Female Migrants' Networks in Austria Using a Biographical Approach 215
(Laura Volgger)

In Hopes of a Better Life: The Invisible Perspective of Syrian Refugee Women in Jordan in the Process of Migration to Europe 255
(Silke Hachmeister & Philipp Kühnlein)

Part IV: Cultural Perspectives

- Migrated Objects and Museums in Germany: Concepts of a Shared Cultural Heritage? 285
(Christiane Dätsch)
- Individual Experiences of Immigrants as Seen by the Artist 313
Dariusz Fodczuk: a Case Study
(Małgorzata Kaźmierczak)
- Is There an Ethical Way to Represent a Refugee? 349
(Anat Tzom Ayalon)
- About the Authors 385