

Katrin Althans, David Kern, Beate Neumeier (Eds.)

Migrant Australia

From Botany Bay to Manus Island

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

WVT Wissenschaftlicher Verlag Trier

Contents

Katrin Althans, David Kern, and Beate Neumeier

Migrant Australia: An Introduction	1
--	---

I. Discourses of the Theoretical

Bill Ashcroft

On Postnational Belonging	11
---------------------------------	----

Sneja Gunew

Neo-Cosmopolitan Mediators: Australian Im/Em/Migrant Writers Interrogate Museums of Identity	25
---	----

II. Discourses of the Political and State Actors

Derya Ozkul and Sitarah Mohammadi

A History of Immigration in Australia: From Colonisation to Externalisation of Asylum	39
--	----

Jamal Barnes

Vulnerability and Resistance in Australian Immigration Detention	53
--	----

Matthew Zagor

Between Law and Grace: Refugee Resettlement and the Logic of Australian Generosity	67
---	----

III. Discourses of the Historical

Louise Thatcher

Policing the Border in Early White Australia	89
--	----

Stefanie Affeldt

A Japanese Galen Down Under: Doctor Suzuki, Broome, and the Intricacies of 'White Australia'	105
---	-----

Tihana Klepač

What the Mischief is this (Immigrant) Bonnet Doing Here?

Mary Helena Fortune in the Age of Australian Nationalist Metanarrative 117

IV. Discourses of the Cultural and Storyfication

Victoria Herche

‘Boat People’ in Australian Cinema:

The Missing Boat in Khoa Do’s Mother Fish (2009) 133

David Kern

Being Muslim, Being Australian: Aspects of Literary Activism

in Randa Abdel-Fattah’s Young Adult Fiction 147

Lina Pranaitytė

Kriol Kitchen in Australia: Migration, Recipes and Inclusive Cookbooks 163

Coda: Activists’ Voices

Celine Yap

Australia and the World: Refugee Policies and Strategies –

Interview with Elaine Pearson 179

The Contributors 189