

COMMUNITY MOVEMENTS IN SOUTHEAST ASIA

An Anthropological Perspective of Assemblages

Edited by

Ryoko Nishii and Shigeharu Tanabe

#ID SOZIAL- UND KULTURWISSENSCHAFTEN
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

Silkworm Books

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction: Community Movements in Southeast Asia	1
Ryoko Nishii

Part 1: Community Movements as Assemblages: Resistance, Voice, and Memory

Chapter 1 The Assemblage of Resistance in Crisis:	21
Buddhist Hermits of King's Mountain in Northern Thailand
Shigeharu Tanabe

Chapter 2 Reassembling the Community of Voice:	59
Community Radio in Northern Thailand
Ryo Takagi

Chapter 3 Forest Memory and Community Movements:	93
Hmong Communities in Thailand
Ryoko Nishii

Part 2: The Community Movements Today: State, Religion, and Education

Chapter 4 Teacher Training Workshops as an Opportunity ...	127
for Self-transformation: The Dhamma School Movement in Myanmar
Keiko Tosa

Chapter 5 Muslims as Citizens of Myanmar:	161
Education in the Muslim Community
Ayako Saito
Chapter 6 Ethnic Language Education and State-building	181
in Myanmar: Community Movement of Kayah
(Karenni)
Tadayuki Kubo
Part 3: Networks and Globalization: Land, Life, and Movements
Chapter 7 The Integrated Agriculture	211
and Community Movement in Northeast Thailand
Nobuko Koya
Chapter 8 Crossing the Limits:	239
Implications of Rope Bridge-building for Social Movements in Southern Laos
Tomoko Nakata
Chapter 9 Glocal Assemblage in Community Movements:	267
Transforming Collective Actions in Cambodian
Land Rights Movements
Toshihiro Abe
Contributors	301
Index	304