

Retro utopia

design for socialist spaces

Kunstgewerbemuseum
Staatliche Museen zu Berlin

content

Hermann Parzinger, Kai Lobjakas	Foreword	7
Claudia Banz	Design for 'Spaceship Earth'	12
Mari Laanemets	The Many Utopias of Design. Ideas and Images in the Late-Soviet Context in the 1960s and 1970s	16
Helena Huber-Doudová	'Luckily, we all die of suffocation on 13 November 2026.' The Environment in Czech Design and Architecture After 1945	22
Polina Baitsym	The Anchors of the 'New' Architecture: Milovzorov's Lamps in the Public Spaces of Soviet Kyiv	28
Karolina Jakaitė	Imaginative and Experimental Design: About the Most Utopian Exhibition Objects, Cosmic Vacuum Cleaners and Visitors' Comments	34
Klára Prešnajderová	Demolition. Work in Progress. The Phenomenon of the Slovak Interior and Its Gradual Disappearance	40
Alex Bykov	UFO Music. Creation and Protection of Florian Juriev's Architectural Masterpiece	46
Florentine Nadolni	The City as Stage: The Design of the Tenth World Festival of Youth and Students in East Berlin, 1973	50
Rostislav Koryčánek	PANELAND. Prefabricated Housing as a Cause for the Destabilization of the Communist Regime in Czechoslovakia	56
Cvetka Požar	Housing for Our Conditions. Modernist Architecture and Design as Co-creators of a Humane Living Environment in Post-war Slovenia	62
Klára Němečková	Optimising Living Space: The Exhibition 'neues leben — neues wohnen'	68
Silke Ihden-Rothkirch	A Bridge Too Far: The 'Polyform' Modular Furniture System	72
Kai Lobjakas	Towards Design. Applied Art as a Means of Change in Estonia of the 1960s	78
Koraljka Vlajo	High Expectations	82
Anna Maga	Utopia: Love It or Leave It?	86
Viera Kleinová	Signals and Signs of Viktor Holešťák-Holubár. The Craft that Formed Design in the Slovak Housing Culture of the 1950s and 1960s	92
Živilė Intaitė	Between Visions and Challenges: Furniture Design by Lithuanian Women Designers in the 1950s–1980s	96
Alyona Sokolnikova	Untold Stories of Invisible Women. A Study of the Professional Roles of Women in 1950s–1980s Soviet Design	102
Melinda Farkasdy	Experiment in Systematic Design: The 'Standardised Kitchen Project' in Hungary (1972–1975)	106
Kaja Muszyńska	Recovery Plan for Polish Tenants. A Humanist Approach to Residential Interior Design in the Institute of Industrial Design's Studies 1970–1980	110
Judit Horváth, Rita Komporday	Symbolic and Real Spatial Partitions in 1960s Hungary	114
Regina Bittner	Architectures of Cultural Transgression: Cultural Centres Between the Fronts	120
Nini Palavandishvili	Chess in Power	124
Alexander Semenov	The Soviets' Space Euphoria	128
Gerda Breuer	Space Race in the Stamp Album: The Cold War and Everyday Design	132
Agata Wozniak	Imagining Cities	136

Biographies	140
Acknowledgments	141
Photo Credits	142
Exhibition Facts	143
Imprint	143