

Plural Ecologies in Southeast Asia

Hierarchies, Conflicts, and Coexistence

Edited by

Timo Duile, Kristina Großmann, Michaela Haug and Guido Sprenger

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of contributors	viii
Acknowledgments	x
1 Introduction: Plural Ecologies: Beyond ontology and political ecology in Southeast Asia	1
GUIDO SPRENGER, KRISTINA GROBMANN, MICHAELA HAUG AND TIMO DUILE
2 Ontologies of Possibility: Future-oriented indeterminacy in Southeast Asian animism	28
GUIDO SPRENGER
3 Conflicting Ways of Dealing with Invisible Human-like Beings: Including – Neglecting – Ignoring	47
SUSANNE RODEMEIER
4 Home of Spirits and Loggers: Plural Perspectives on the Forest in Indonesian Borneo	65
MICHAELA HAUG
5 Animism and Indigenous Movements in Indonesia	83
TIMO DUILE
6 Negotiating Plural Ecologies of adat Land in Indonesia	98
KRISTINA GROBMANN
7 Ecological Disturbances: Negotiating indigeneity and access to land in Indonesia	112
BIRGIT BRÄUCHLER
8 Entrepreneurial Ecologies in a Javanese Fishery	132
KATHARINA SCHNEIDER

vi Contents

9	The Reinvention of Moral Ecologies in Indonesia THOMAS REUTER	149
10	“Talking” Trees: Urban Ecologies in Late Socialist Hanoi GERTRUD HÜWELMEIER	169
11	A Positive Other? Comprehending the Hope in Animism’s Overcoming the Capitalist Socio-ecological Crisis MICHAEL KLEINOD	187
	Index	206