

Standards in Action Series

Voices from the South: Decolonial Perspectives in International Education

Editors

Andrea Rizzotti and Héctor M. Cruz-Feliciano
Sophia Pekowsky, editorial assistant

A publication of The Forum on Education Abroad

Contents

Foreword	ix
Said Graioud
1. Introduction	1
Andrea Rizzotti and Héctor M. Cruz-Feliciano (translated by Sophia Pekowsky)
2. Jaspers's Conceptions of Guilt in International Education	11
Mauricio Paredes
3. Shifting the Center: Challenging Ethnocentrism of U.S. Students in Peru	30
Marion Tizón
4. U.S. Education Abroad's Unabashed Neoliberalism: One Practitioner's Thoughts on "the market" in the MENA Region	50
Elena D. Corbett
5. An Alternative to Service-Learning: Reframing Community-Based Experiences in a Process-Oriented Approach	80
Héctor M. Cruz-Feliciano

6. Centering Afro-Colombian Narratives by Exploring Critical Theories and the Complexities of Identity in Study Abroad	97
Diego Andrés Lugo-Vivas, Cyntoya McCall and Pedro León Cortés-Ruiz
7. Transformative Experiences to Frame a Decolonial Approach to International Education: Insights from a Study Abroad Program in India	120
Anitha Ramanna
8. The Pedagogy of Being Involved: Political Participation as Decolonial Practice in Virtual and On-Site Study Abroad Programs in Buenos Aires, Argentina	140
Andrea Rizzotti and Sophia Pekowsky
9. White Supremacy, Global Education, and Decolonial Futures	162
Cheikh Thiam and Hannah Sorila
Contributors	180
Index	185