

Géraldine Mossière
Editor

New Spiritualities and the Cultures of Well-being

AN DER UNIVERSITÄT
DUISBURG-ESSEN
IN ZUSAMMENARBEITUNG MIT DER DFG

 Springer

Contents

Introduction: Spirituality, Well-Being and the Neoliberal Canopy . . . . .	1
Géraldine Mossière
How Can a Subject Be More Than Himself? Spiritual Subjectivities and Well-Being in Portuguese Spiritism and the New Spiritualities . . . . .	15
Christophe Pons
Spirituality, Self-Help, and Subjective Wellbeing Culture . . . . .	35
Galen Watts
Religious Conversions and New Spiritual Economies . . . . .	51
Géraldine Mossière
Smudging, Yoga and Ethical Veganism: Exploring the Boundaries of Religious and Spiritual Practice in Law . . . . .	67
Lori G. Beaman and Lauren Strumos
Economic Reforms and Spiritual Transformations? Iran from the 1990s. . . . .	83
Behnaz Khosravi
When Spirituality Becomes Spiritual Labour: Workplace Mindfulness as a Practice of Well-Being and Productivity . . . . .	99
Mira Karjalainen
The Entanglement of Spirituality, Wellbeing and ‘Spiritual Economy’ in Brazil: The Shift from ‘Living Well Together’ to ‘Leading a Good Life’ . . . . .	117
Bettina E. Schmidt
Wellness in the Wild: Reverential Naturalism in the Pacific Northwest . . . . .	135
Paul Bramadat

Nature Connection as Spirituality, Wellbeing Practice, and Subjective Activism . . . . . 153
Henrik Ohlsson

Do Gaga, Be Well? Well-Being as Intersectional Dispositif in the Neo-spiritual Israeli Movement Practice Gaga . . . . . 169
Lina Aschenbrenner and Anne Koch

Correction to: New Spiritualities and the Cultures of Well-being . . . . . C1

---

The original version of this book was revised: The book was inadvertently published with a typo error in the title which has been corrected now. The correction to this book is available at https://doi.org/10.1007/978-3-031-06263-6\_12