

This Era of Black Activism

Edited by
Mary Marcel and Edith Joachimpillai

LEXINGTON BOOKS
Lanham • Boulder • New York • London

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: This Era of Black Activism Edith Joachimpillai and Mary Marcel	1
PART 1: BLACK ACTIVISM
1 #BlackLivesMatter: Innovative Black Resistance Jozie Nummi, Carly Jennings and Joe Feagin	15
2 Dream Defenders: The First Ten Years and the Transition to This Era of Black Activism Mary Marcel	45
3 Protecting Whom? Serving What?: Police Accountability in Ferguson Protests in 2014 Jozie Nummi and Amorette T. Young	73
4 The Camera as “Moral Agent” and Testimonial for Black Reparative Justice Joyce Hope Scott	103
5 Community and Communal Coping: The Role of Social Media as a Resource for Black Activism and Black Refuge David Stamps	119
6 From Protests to Pride and Back Again: A Look at New York Pride’s Origins and the Modern BIPOC Queer Movement to Reclaim It Moussa Hassoun	139

7	Challenging “Taken-for-Granted” Assumptions in Academia: Scholarship as Activism Anne Rawls	159
8	The Black Professor Utz McKnight and Greg Austin	187
PART 2: THE EFFECTS OF BLACK ACTIVISM ON INSTITUTIONS
9	An Investigation of Fortune 100 Companies’ Responses to the 2020 BLM Movement Ziyuan Zhou	209
10	Black Activism from the Ivory Tower: Cultural Betrayal, Sexual Abuse, and Healing for Black Women and Girls Jennifer M. Gómez	225
11	Racism, Poverty and Health Oh My! The Black Voice: Leading in Unprecedented Times Melissa Hector	243
12	From Black Dehumanization to Repair: The Long Road Through Death, Poverty, Protests and Policy to Rebuild the Social Contract Edith Joachimpillai	265
	Appendix: Additional Bibliographic Resources by Mary Marcel	293
	Index	305
	About the Editors and Contributors	319