

Tom Vine • Sarah Richards
Editors

Stories, Storytellers, and Storytelling

THE IDEAL LINE
IN THE HISTORY OF THE
IN ZUSAMMENARBEIT MIT DER DfG

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Tom Vine and Sarah Richards
2	Narratives in (in)Authenticity: The Early Career Academic	29
	Suzanne Albary
3	Women, Bullying, and the Construction Industry: A Story of Veiled Gender Dynamics	47
	Tina Potkins and Tom Vine
4	Clinical Advance Through Ethnographic Storytelling: Towards an Enacted Organisational Role for the Hospital Visitor	77
	Tom Vine
5	Two-and-One: Discovering My Story in Participants' Pregnancy Narratives	93
	Maureen Haaker
6	Exploring Polyvocal Stories of Space, Place, Movement, and Migration	111
	Anna-Leah King, Barbara McNeil, Heather Phipps, and Kathryn Ricketts

- 7 Whose Story Is It Anyway? Hashtag Campaigns and Digital Abortion Storytelling 145
Reilly Willis
- 8 Storytime in the Craft Beer Bar: Narratives, Gobbets and Segments 173
David Weir, Daniel Clarke, and Holly Patrick-Thomson
- 9 Arbitrage and Autopoiesis in Police Sergeants' Stories: More Than "Canteen Culture" 195
David Weir
- 10 Restorying Trauma: Child Sexual Abuse 217
Aisha Howells
- 11 Personal and Ethnic Bildungen: Cross-cultural Storytelling in Singaporean-British Writer PP Wong's *The Life of a Banana 239
Weimin Delcroix-Tang
- 12 Telling Stories, Building Bridges and Constructing Milton Keynes: Storytelling Practice and Research Working Together 257
Terrie Howey-Moore
- 13 The Personal Statement: A Tool for Developing the Pedagogical Potential of Storytelling in Business Management Education? 281
Daniel Clarke and Tom Cunningham
- Correction to: Whose Story Is It Anyway? Hashtag Campaigns and Digital Abortion Storytelling C1
Reilly Willis